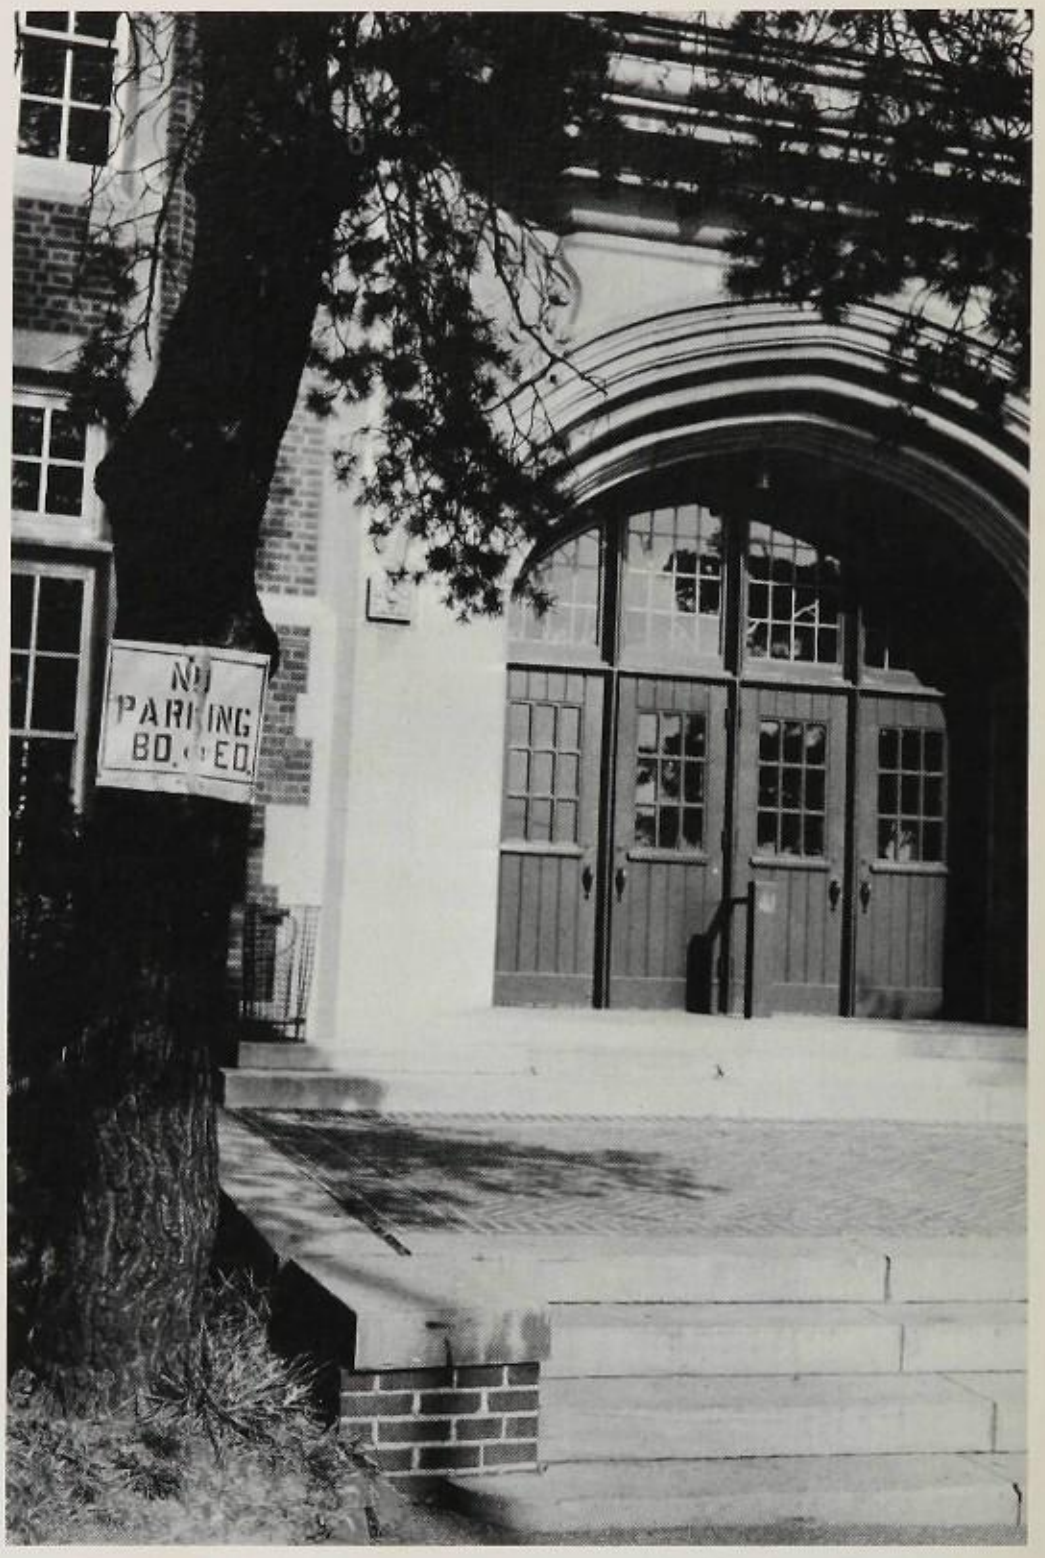
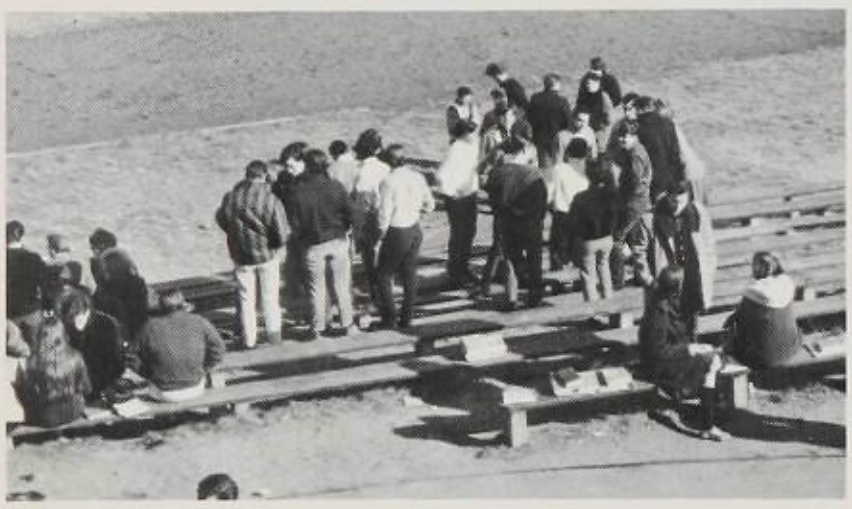
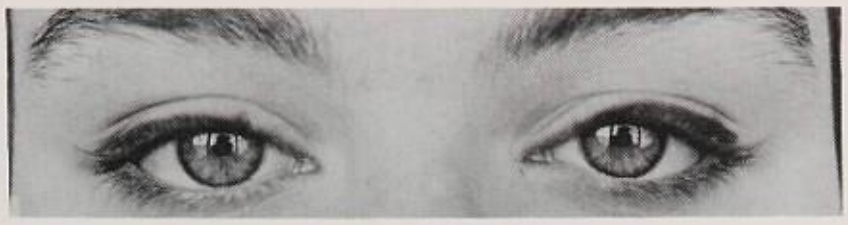
"The sense of sight is indeed the highest bodily privilege, the purest physical pleasure which man has derived from his Creator." Too often, however, we accept our surroundings blindly . . . thus depriving ourselves of the colors . . . faces . . . the patterns and forms which constitute our environment . . . the aware student . . . the perceptive individual is able to see not only the obvious but the spirit . . . the feeling . . . the undercurrent of emotion which gives Roosevelt High School a personality of its own . . . look around you . . . there is much to be seen . . .

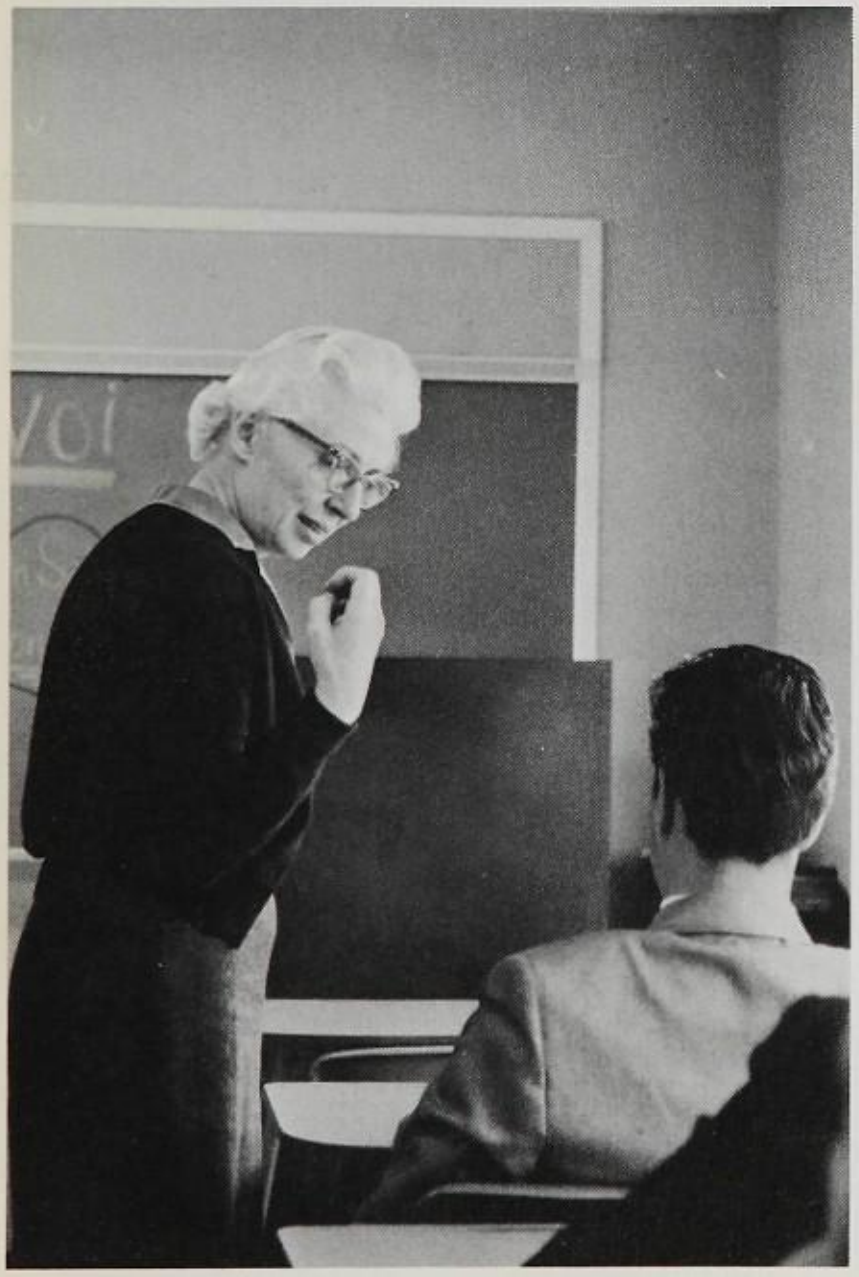


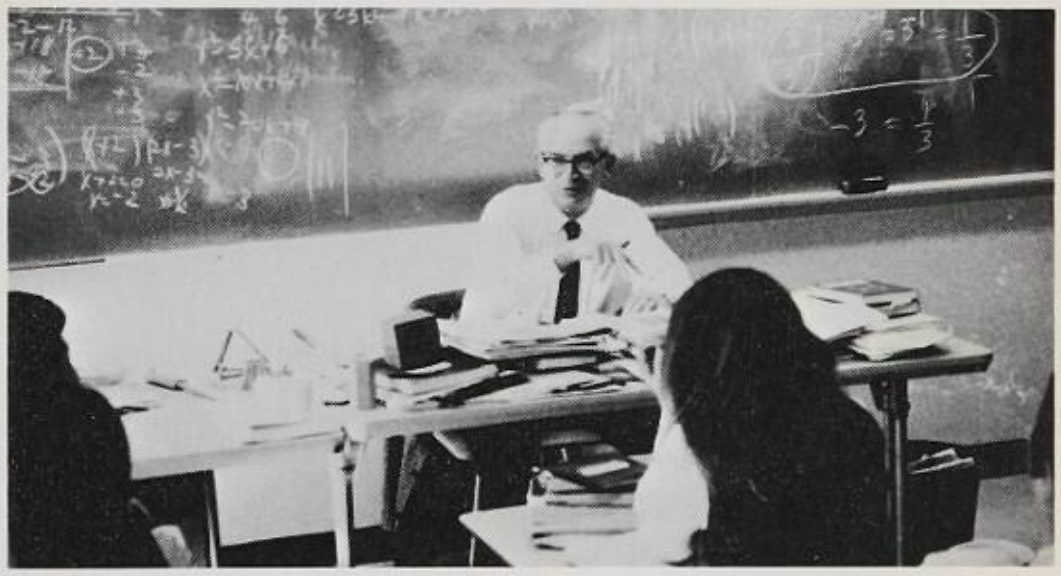
Often we move in throngs . . . sometimes three's a crowd . . . but once in a great while we like to be left alone . . . lost in our own thoughts . . . and dreams . . . and plans . . .

Students . . . learning . . . relaxing . . . some merely faces in a crowd . . . most of them friends . . . each an integral part of the whole . . . a myriad of minds . . . alive . . . absorbing . . . many students . . . people we've enjoyed being with . . . talking to . . . together . . . easing the loneliness of growing up . . . worth being remembered...



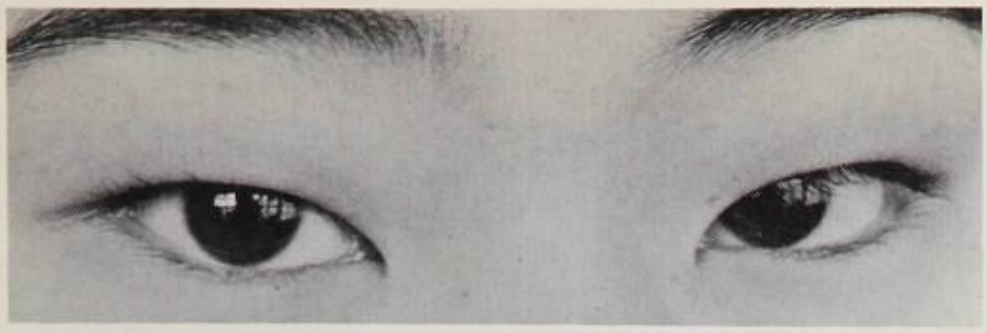




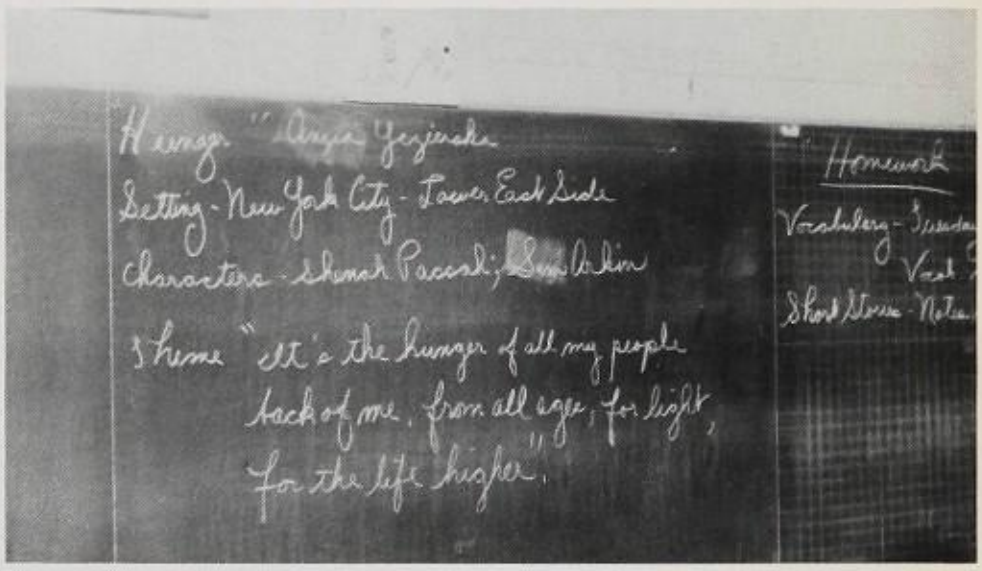


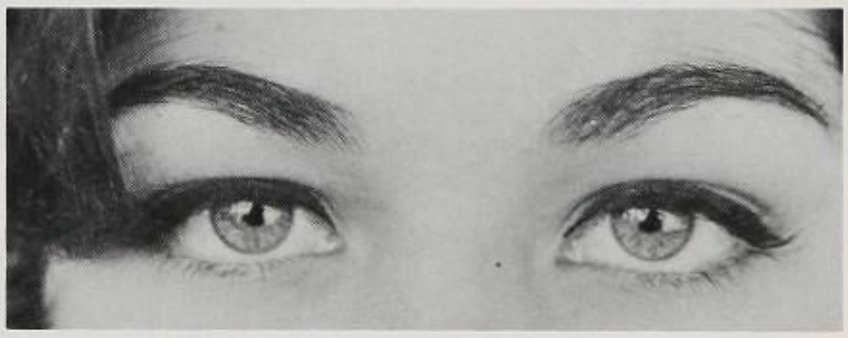
The special harmony between the teachers and the students . . . the ability to communicate . . . the desire to educate . . . helping . . . guiding . . . understanding . . . encouraging without compelling . . . filled with youthful enthusiasm . . . seasoned by maturity . . . becoming a part of each student they encounter . . . caring . . . giving. . .

A solitary tree . . . the parking lot . . . a field indelibly scarred by past glories and disappointments . . . a haven from a crowded lunchroom . . . a place to smoke . . . or just sit and talk . . . old and sturdy in its years of development . . . white with snow . . . green with spring . . . a campus . . .



The classroom . . . pathway to progress . . . showcase of the students' creativity . . . each its own institute of learning . . . housing a multitude of ideas . . . influenced by discussion . . . rich with new experiences . . .



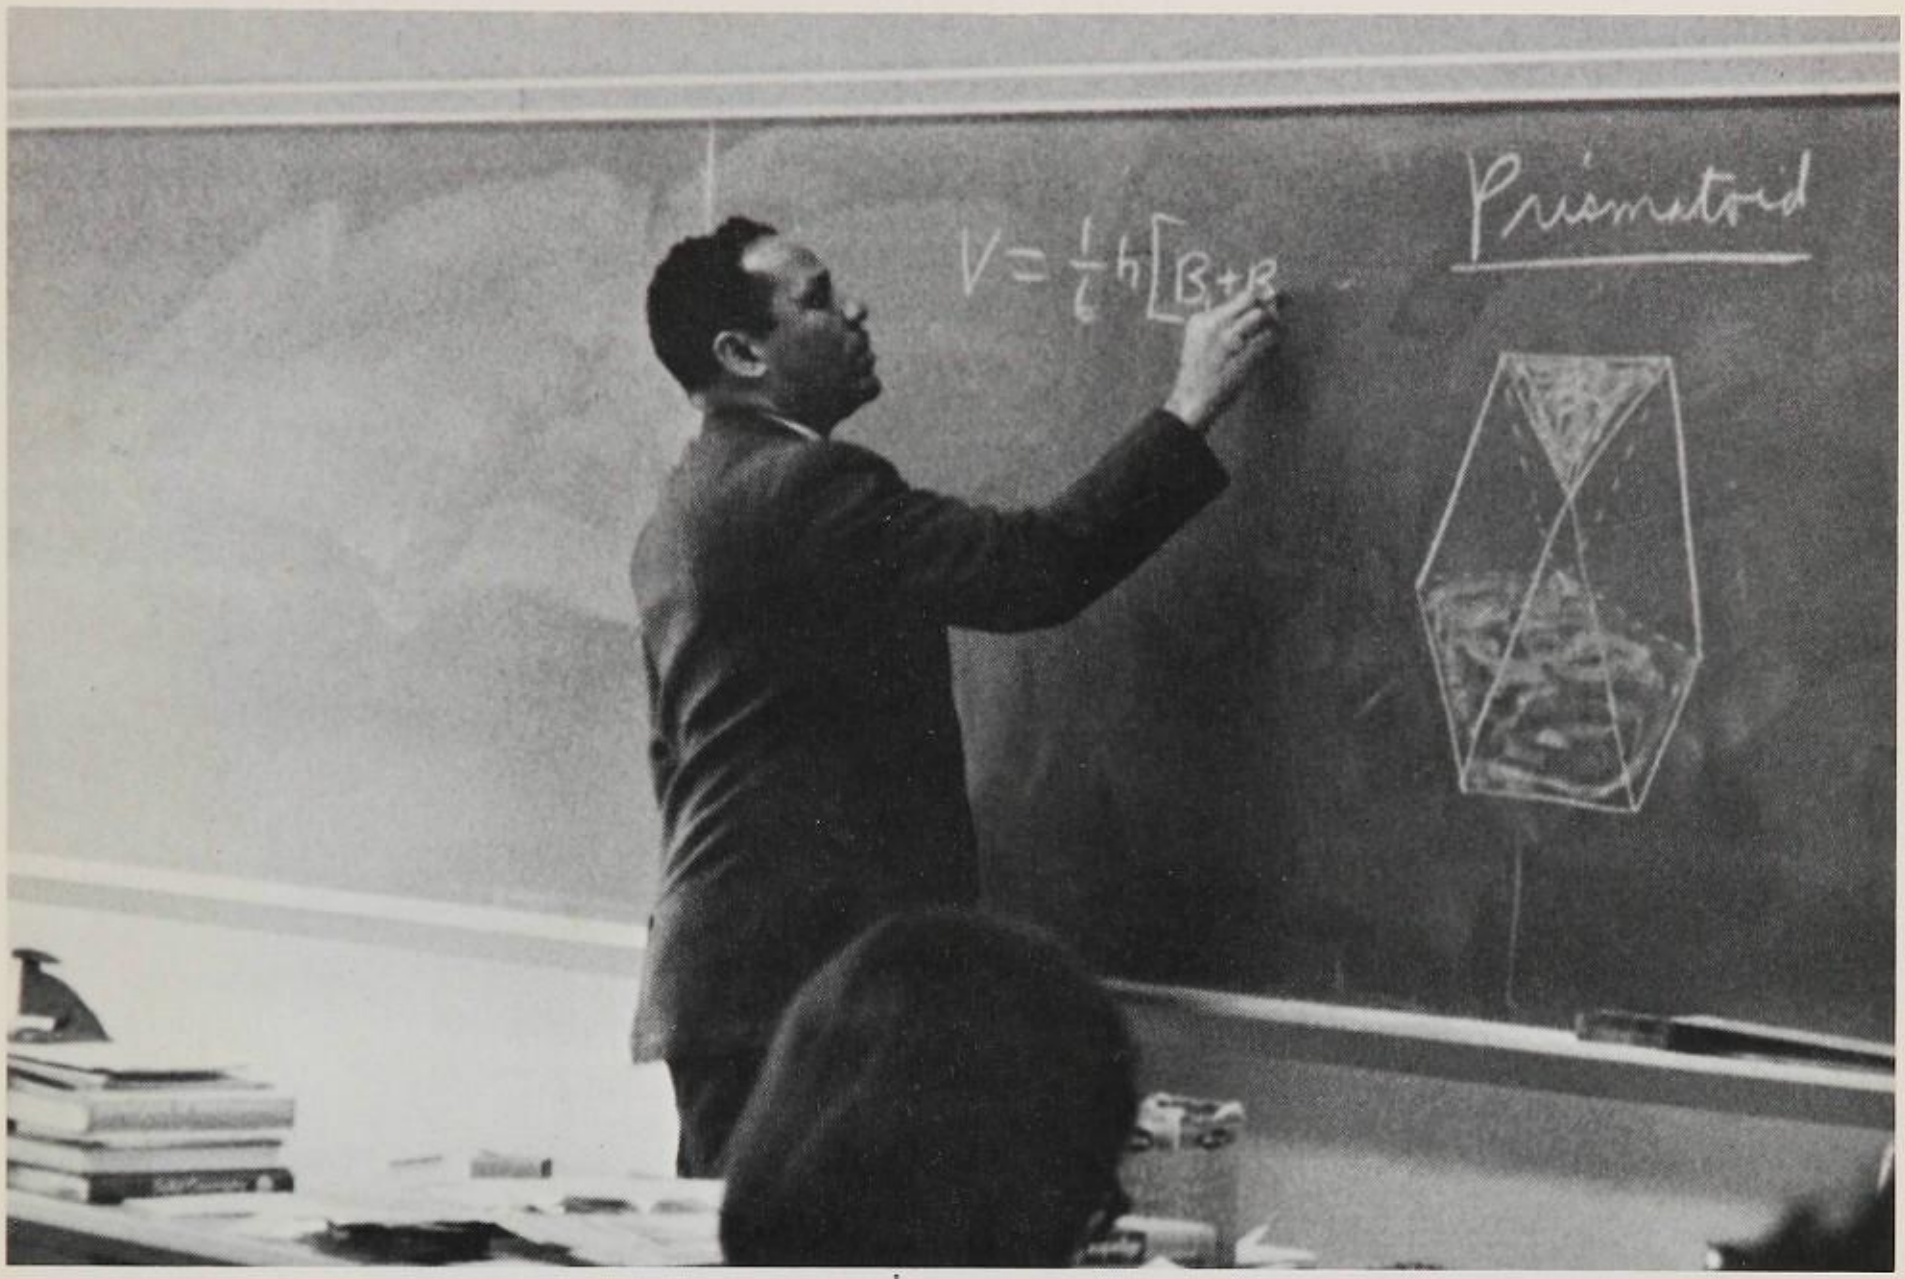


The happy times . . . intense enthusiasm . . . unleashed exhilaration . . . the breathless excitement of a basket . . . a touchdown . . . bleachers weighted by restless feet . . . laughter . . . motion . . . popcorn and coke . . . the precise rhythm of a cheer . . . the silver sparkle of a baton . . . a game over . . . hard fought . . . hard won . . .

Tradition . . . a legacy from the Indians of the past . . . pride . . . honor . . . a custom to cherish . . . a reputation to live up to . . . a common bond . . . holding us together . . . setting us apart . . .

MR. ROBERT McDANIEL

DEDICATION



A model of devotion and loyalty . . . patience . . . skill . . . a symbol of trust and integrity . . . a warm and inspiring teacher . . . leadership . . . the dynamic vitality needed to get things done . . . wisdom . . . judgment . . . leadership . . . a sense of humor that relaxes us and makes us feel at home . . . radiant eager spirit . . . dedication to our school . . . a genuine interest in all of us . . . friendliness . . . sincerity . . .

The staff of L'Envoi 1966 is honored to dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Robert McDaniel.

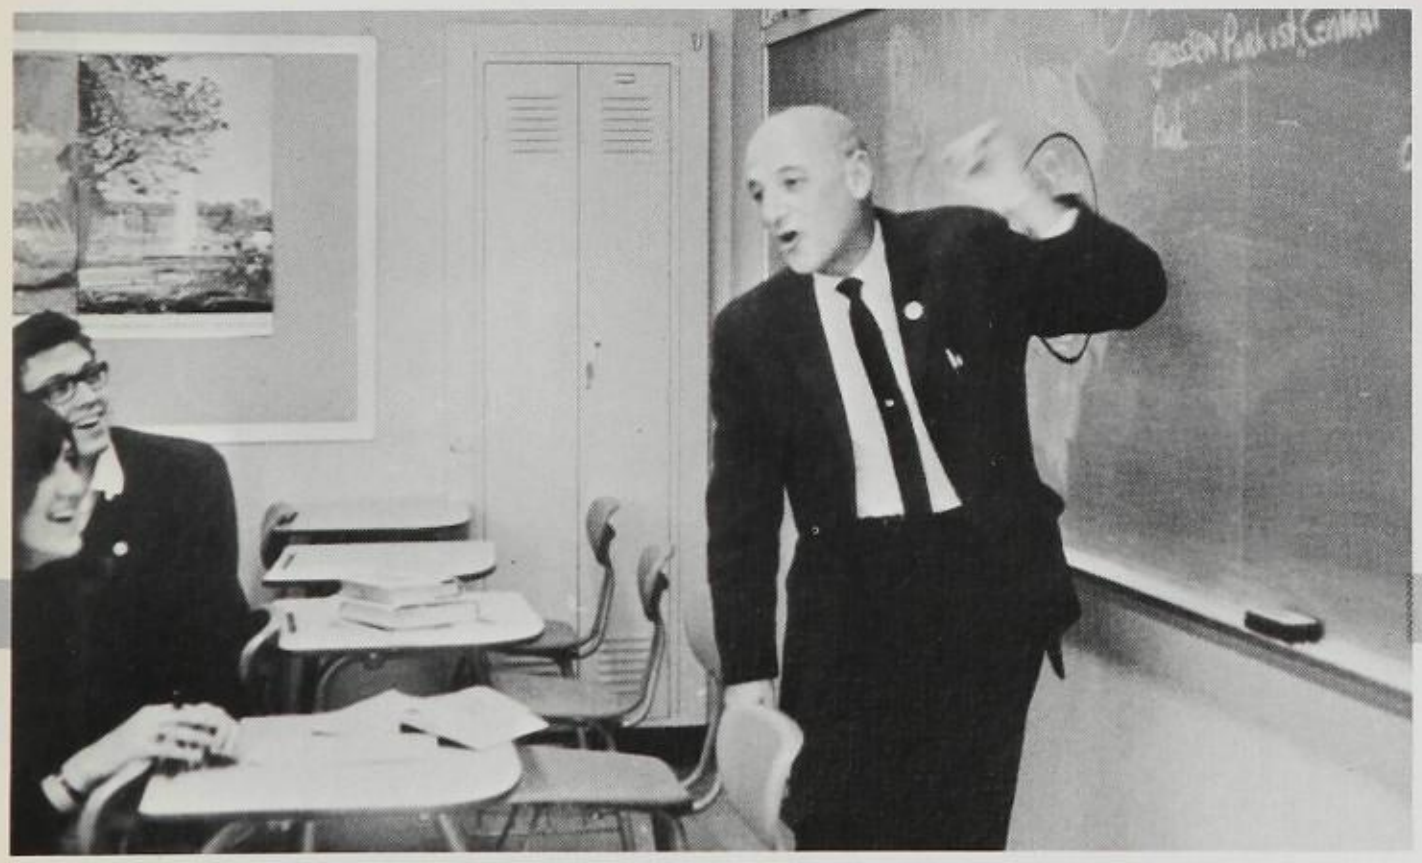
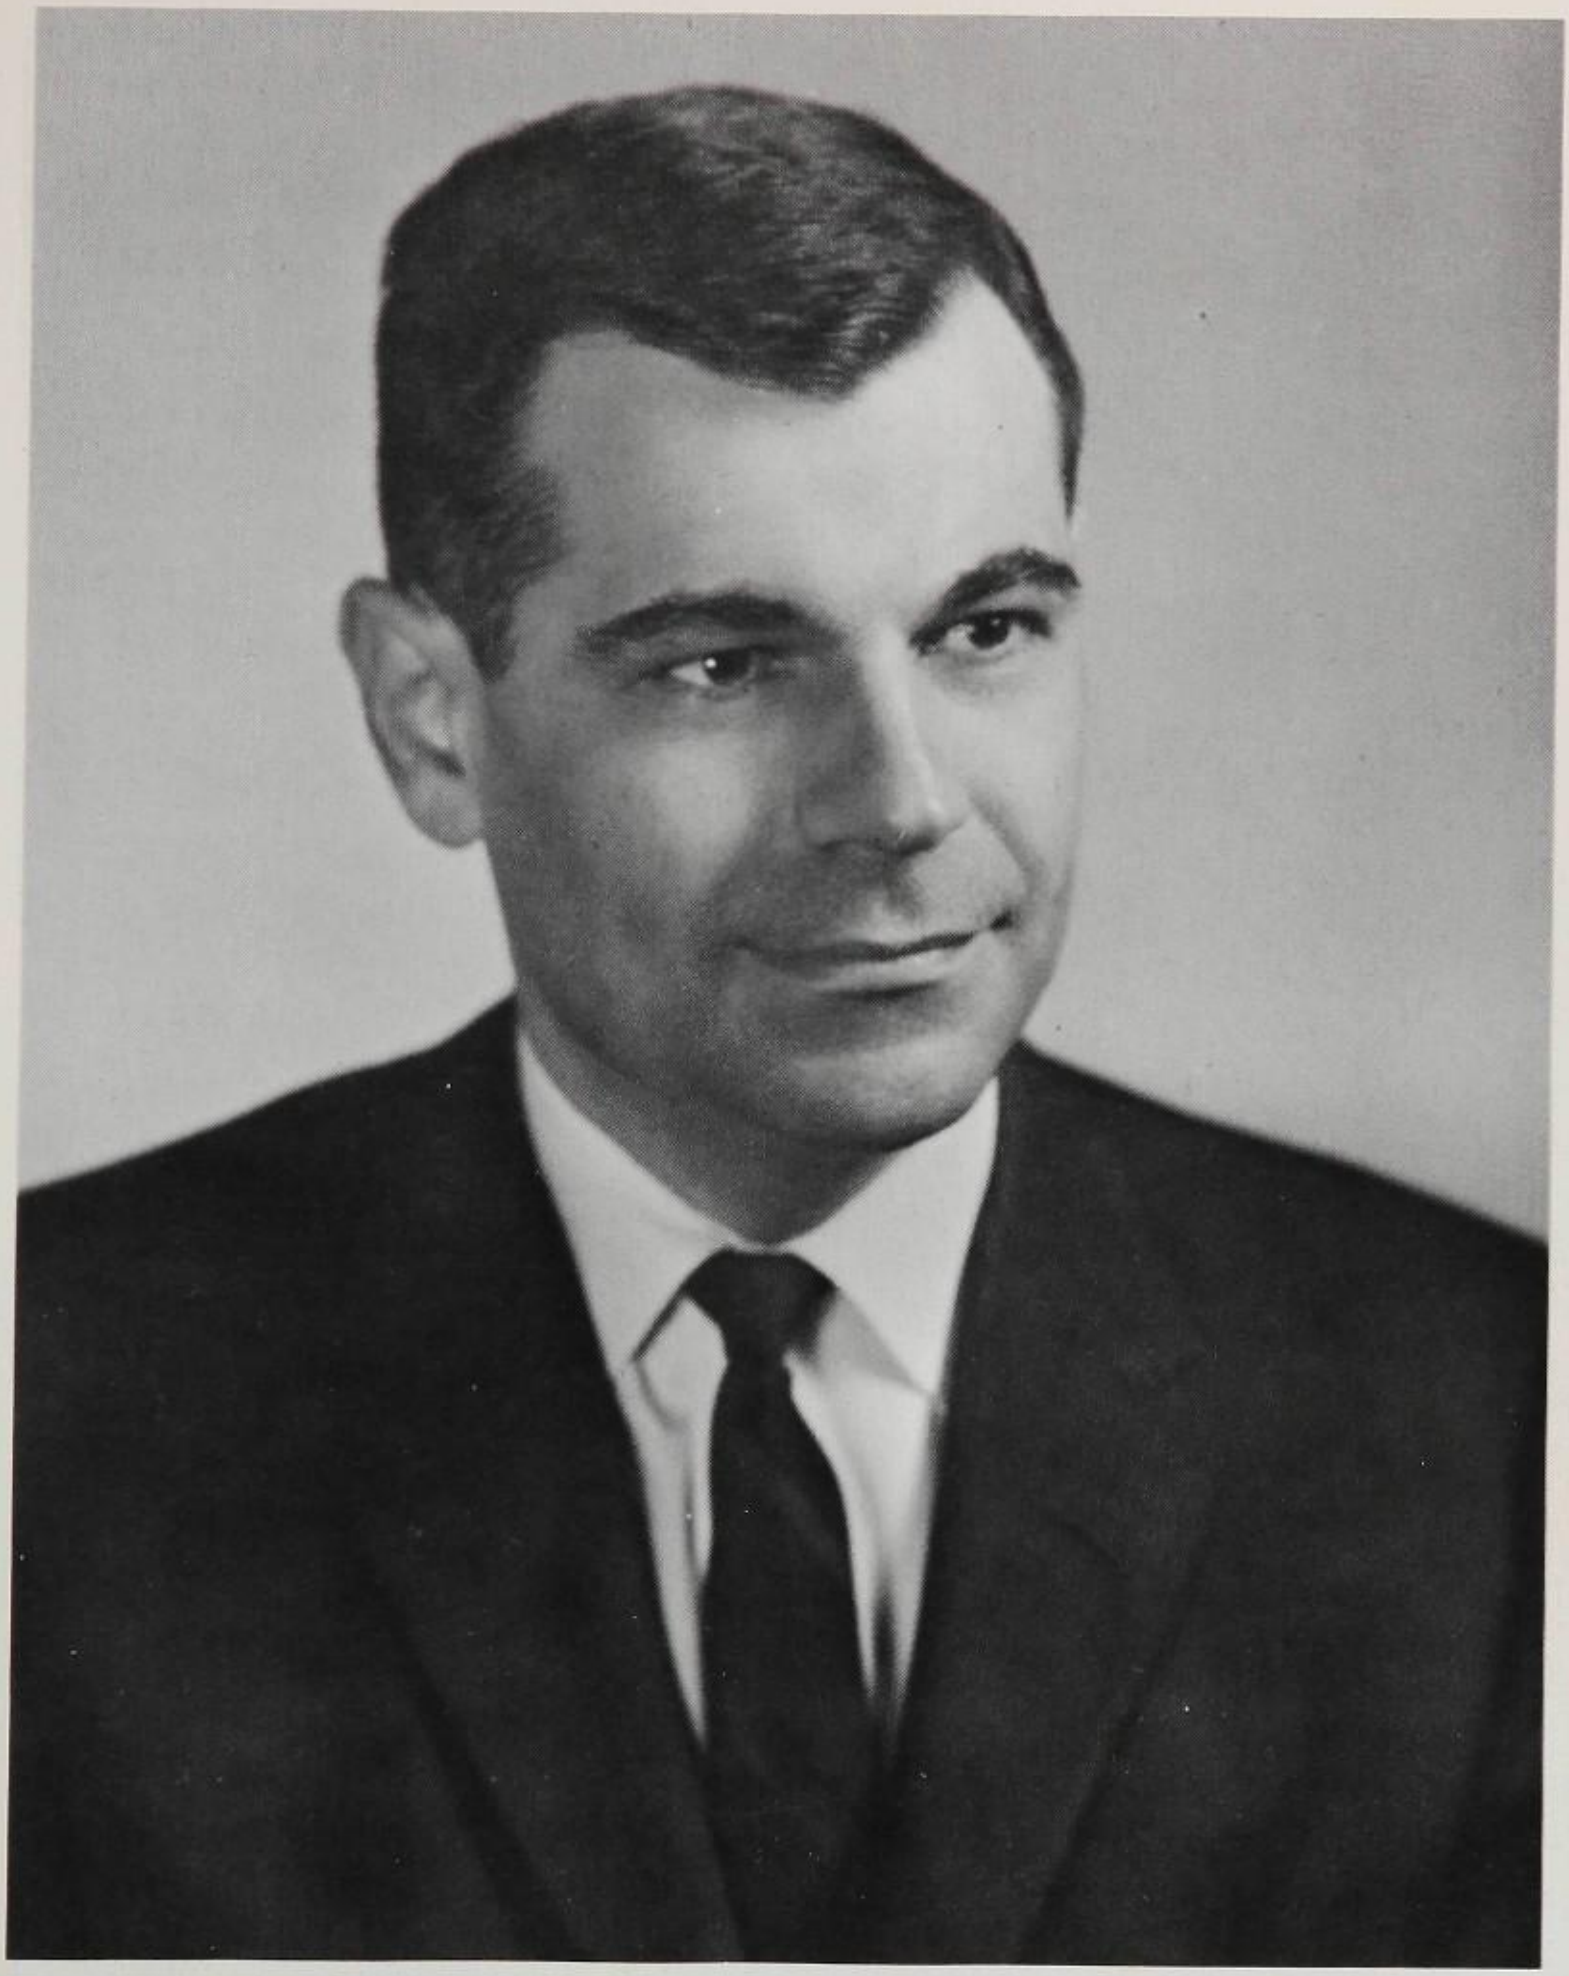
FACULTY

A helping hand . . . an endless interest . . . infinite patience and understanding . . . the wisdom of experience . . . a sincere dedication to the development of ideas . . . ideals . . . and minds . . . the Faculty. . .



ADMINISTRATION

THOMAS J. KEENAN, PRINCIPAL



FRANCIS J. ROMANO, ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

A new year . . . a new administration . . . comprehension . . . experience . . . the fresh ideas and ideals to guide and inspire us . . . determination . . . the constant striving for improvement . . . a genuine interest in the welfare of the school in general . . . of the student in particular . . . R.H.S. is assured of adroit leadership with Mr. Keenan and Mr. Romano.

Coordinating our programs in school . . . planning a college education . . . opening our minds to various careers . . . done with patience . . . understanding . . . foresight . . . wise and willing counsel . . . personal interest . . . guiding us to a better future . . .

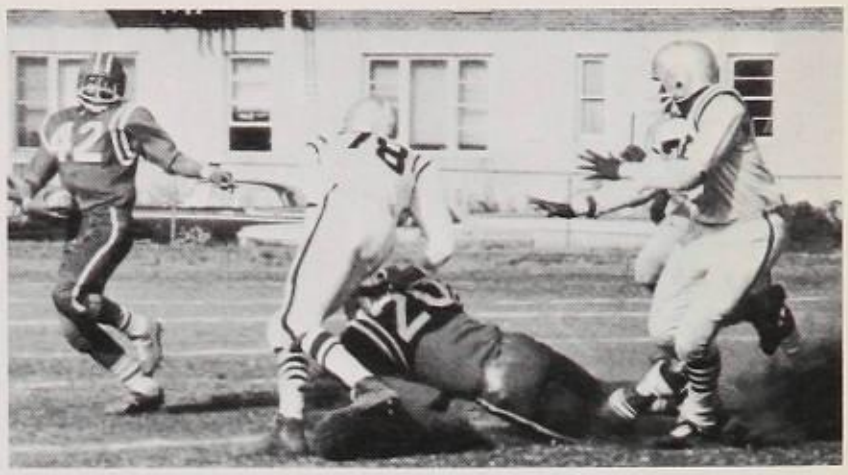
The Offense Drove . . .

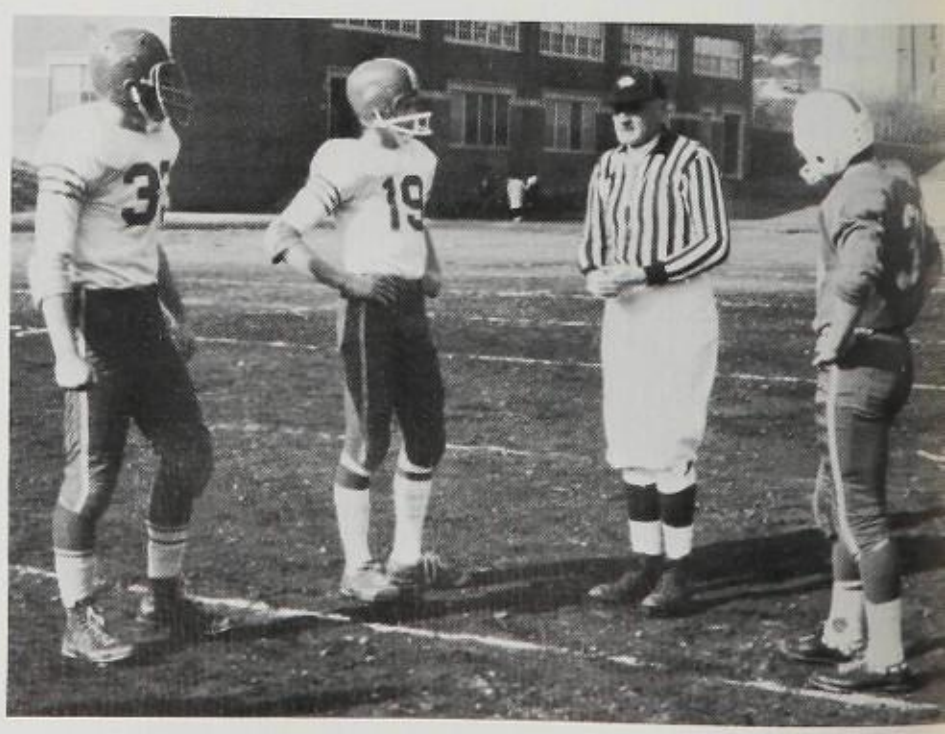


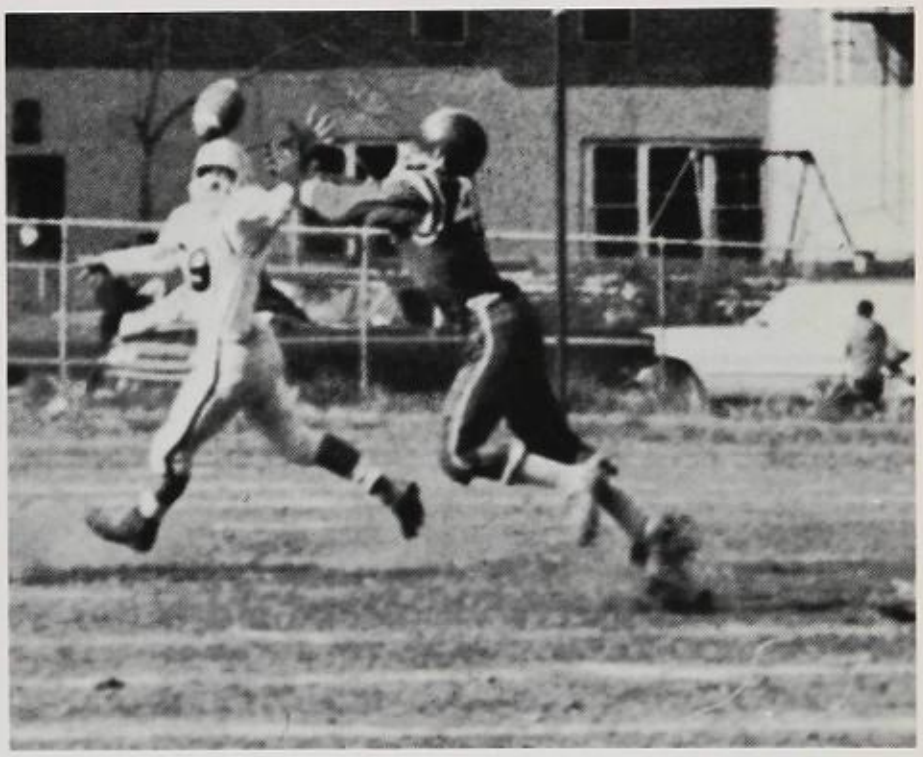
And So The Season Went . . .

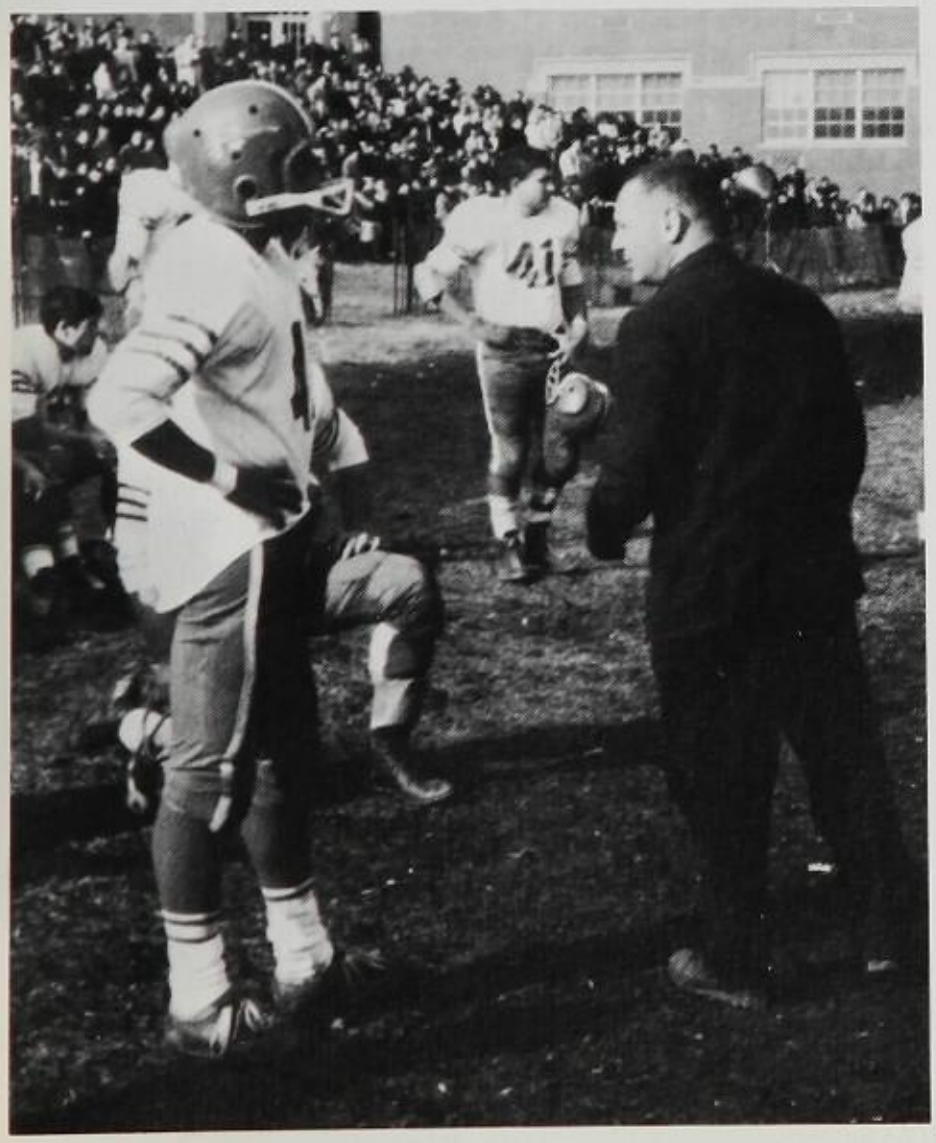
Statistics alone cannot tell the story of the 1965 Indian Gridders. The team battled every game down to the last second, even when hope had run out. Indian Coaches, Messrs. Monaco, Leitner and DeMatteo, merit much praise. They not only shaped the players into a fighting squad, but also instilled in them the traditional Indian spirit and sportsmanship.

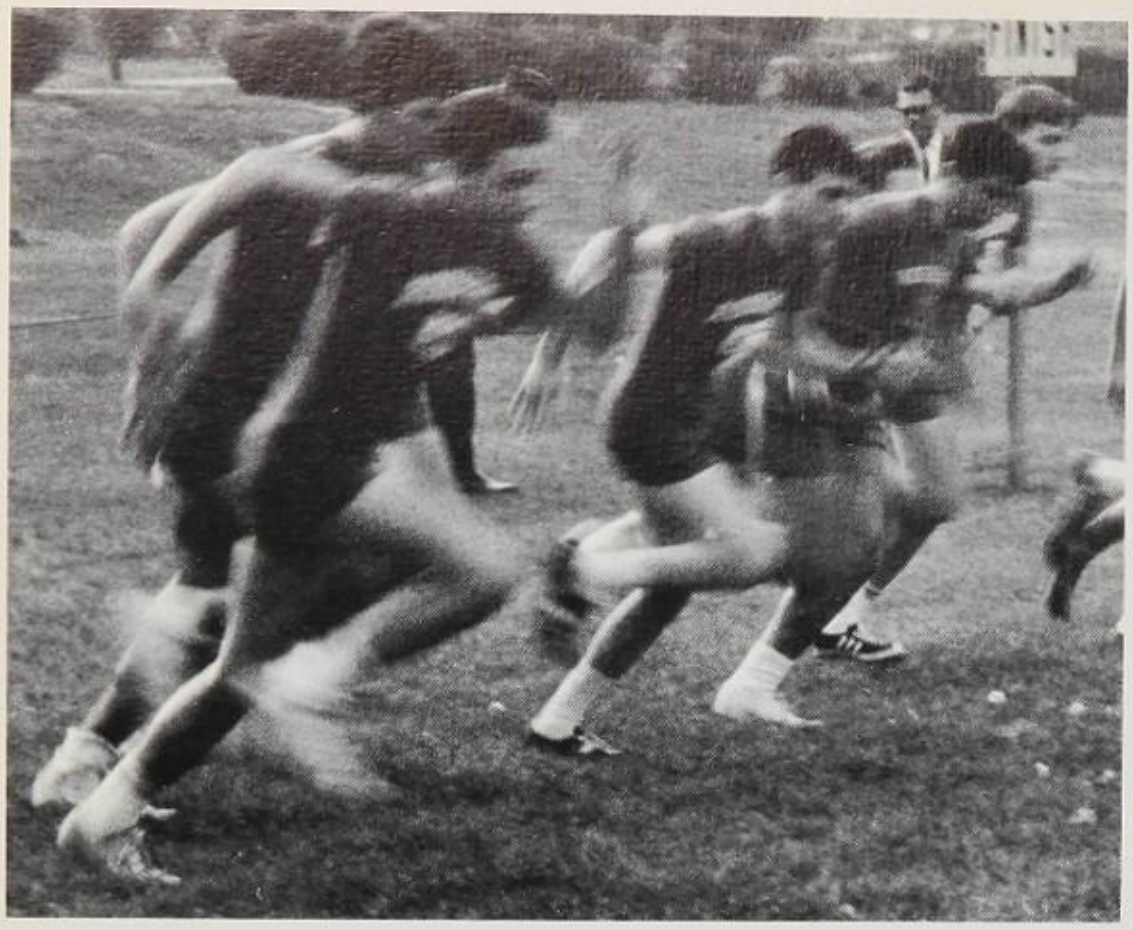
The team opened their challenging schedule against a fast and talented Peekskill "eleven". In a losing effort we gained much needed experience, which we carried into the next game against the perennial powerhouse, Mamaroneck. In this game the team exhibited a strong defense and a determined offense. Although they came out on the short end, Roosevelt fans were proud of the team's performance.

This year's city league was characterized by stronger teams than in the immediate past. The title was a toss-up until the final two weeks of the season. Against Lincoln, Roosevelt played their true-to-form football, winning easily 26-6. The game was highlighted by the breakaway running of Ron "Scooter" Kelly and the consistent passing of Glenn Burch to ends Boo Glover and Tom Caione. Our new defense, led by Ron Santavicca and Ken Erdoes, proved to be formidable against our other city foes. Unfortunately our offensive unit was often beset by penalties or fumbles at the peaks of their long drives and the final touchdown play lingered just beyond their grasp.

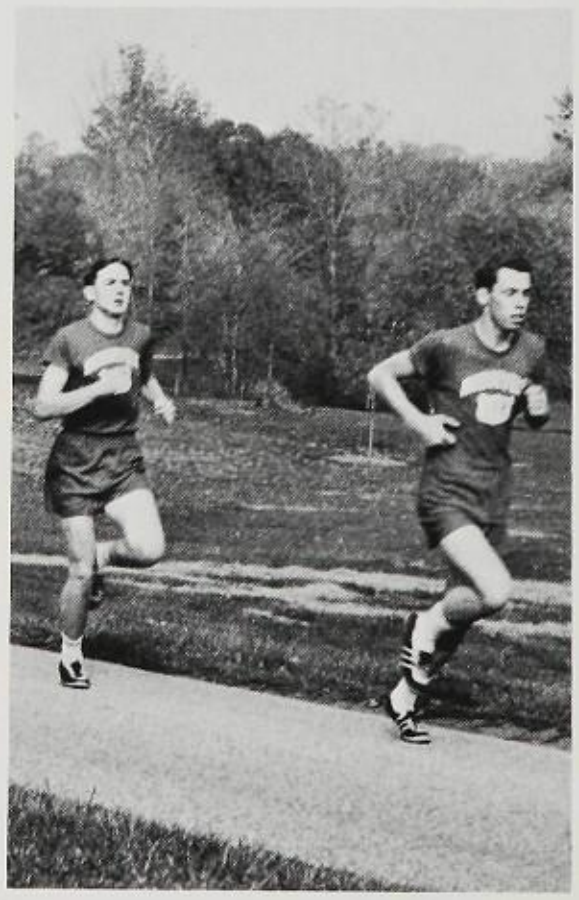








CROSS COUNTRY



The 1965 season ended with a disappointing fourth for the Roosevelt Harriers. They easily downed Yonkers and Commerce, but were handily beaten by Gorton, Saunders, and Lincoln.

Finishing high in the city meet, out of a field of 70, were Bruce Davis; fourteenth, Ron Kusel, fifteenth; Paul Wood, eighteenth; and Jim Driskko, nineteenth. These boys consistently finished high on the list for Roosevelt during the course of the season.

Next year is quite hopeful, for most of our runners are returning, and all hope to bring the trophy back to Roosevelt, where it belongs.

Under the expert guidance and leadership of Coach Timmons, this year's players were moulded into a hard fighting team. Our junior gridders compiled an overall 4-3 record and were 3-1 in the city capturing the runner up spot.

Highlighting the season was the surprising breakaway backfield. These runners broke through the line game after game for long scoring runs. Also not to go unnoticed was the strong defense which held three of their opponents scoreless.

These talented players should prove an asset to Coach Monaco's varsity squad next year.

Offensively . . .

No one can look back at this year's past basketball season without remembering many vivid, exciting moments. Although our final record of 4-11 was far below par, we may take great pride in the never-say-die ball-playing of our team and the fine job that Coaches Seidell and Rothstein did in trying to spark a winning club.

While playing even at 4-4 in City competition, we failed to win a game in the County. Captain Warren Rothstein, noted for his play making and dribbling, piloted the team on the court. It was this leadership that earned him All-city honorable mention. Mike McGowan, playing at the other guard position, shot a sizzling 47% this season. At the forwards there were defensive specialist Tom Bonano and ball hawking Tom Caione who also compiled a better than 16 point average and made All-City 2 team. Filling the hole in center was big Gen Erdoes. Ken muscled his way for numerous rebounds, scored underneath, and was deadly with his outside shot. Scoring 18 points a game and all around fine play earned him a berth on the starting All-City team at Center. Frank Gray saw frequent action, as did Ed Stallworth and Gregory Govan. Also to back up the starters were Andy Poses, Mike Sample, Roger Medura and Ronald DeFrancis. Coach Joseph Seidell's working nucleus consists of Roger Medura, Gregory Govan, Ronald DeFrancis and other competent players from the junior varsity. Coach is sure he and the team can bring a winning season to R.H.S. next year.

At the beginning of every basketball evening our Junior Varsity would try their hardest to win. It is in these games that our future stars are moulded and groomed under the guidance of Coach Joe Flower. The success of this year's team is not reflected by the 5-10 record, but by the experience gained by the players on the team. All the players saw action in many of the games and were able to learn the basics for team cooperation. Joe Seidell will have his pick of the best for next year's team while Coach Flower will create ball players for the session club once again.

SWIMMING

The Indian Aquamen fielded an outstanding team for 1966 under the leadership of Coach Ralph Mozilo and compiled a 6-4 record. The only shortcoming of the swim team was lack of depth, for, in most meets the Indians took the majority of first places, but many times didn't have the back-up men needed to gain the team victories, as was the case in three close meets.

The performances of Ken Fellerman and Rusty Shaw but them in a league of their own in the city and earned them high rankings in the county competition. The nucleus of the team consisted of experienced juniors Jim Tooley, Charles Gutekunst, Dan Kornblatt and Roland Misarti.

The first year is hard for anybody in any competition and so was it hard for Mr. Mozilo. Captain Dave Fisher, a successful competitor throughout the year, and manager Bruce Vogel worked diligently with the new coach in presenting a formidable team. Mr. Mozilo hopes his team will bring the city swim crown to Roosevelt next year.

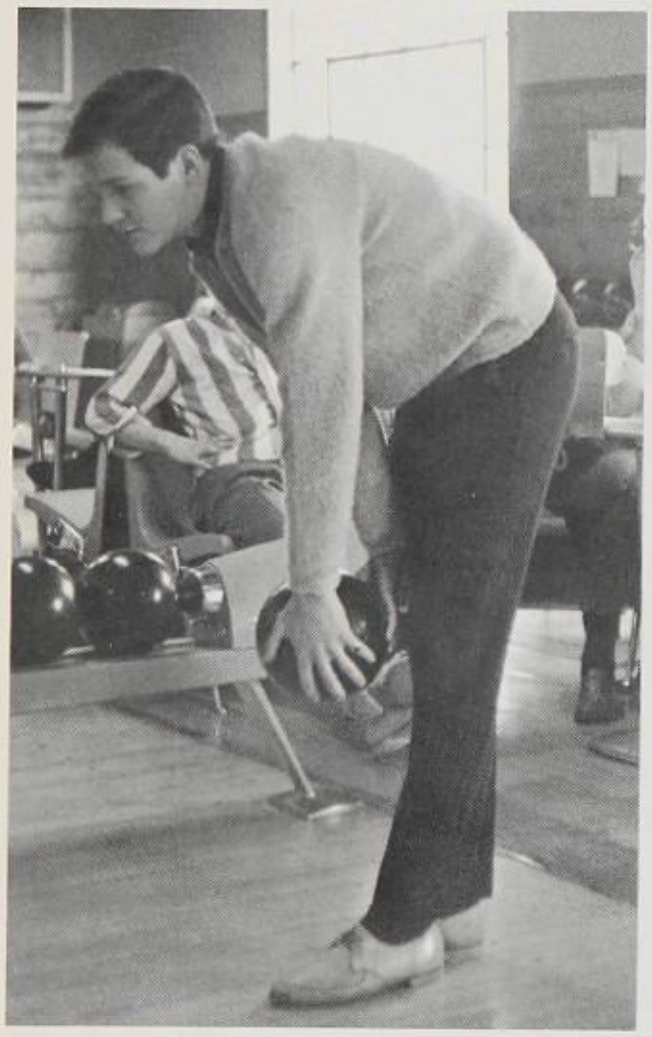
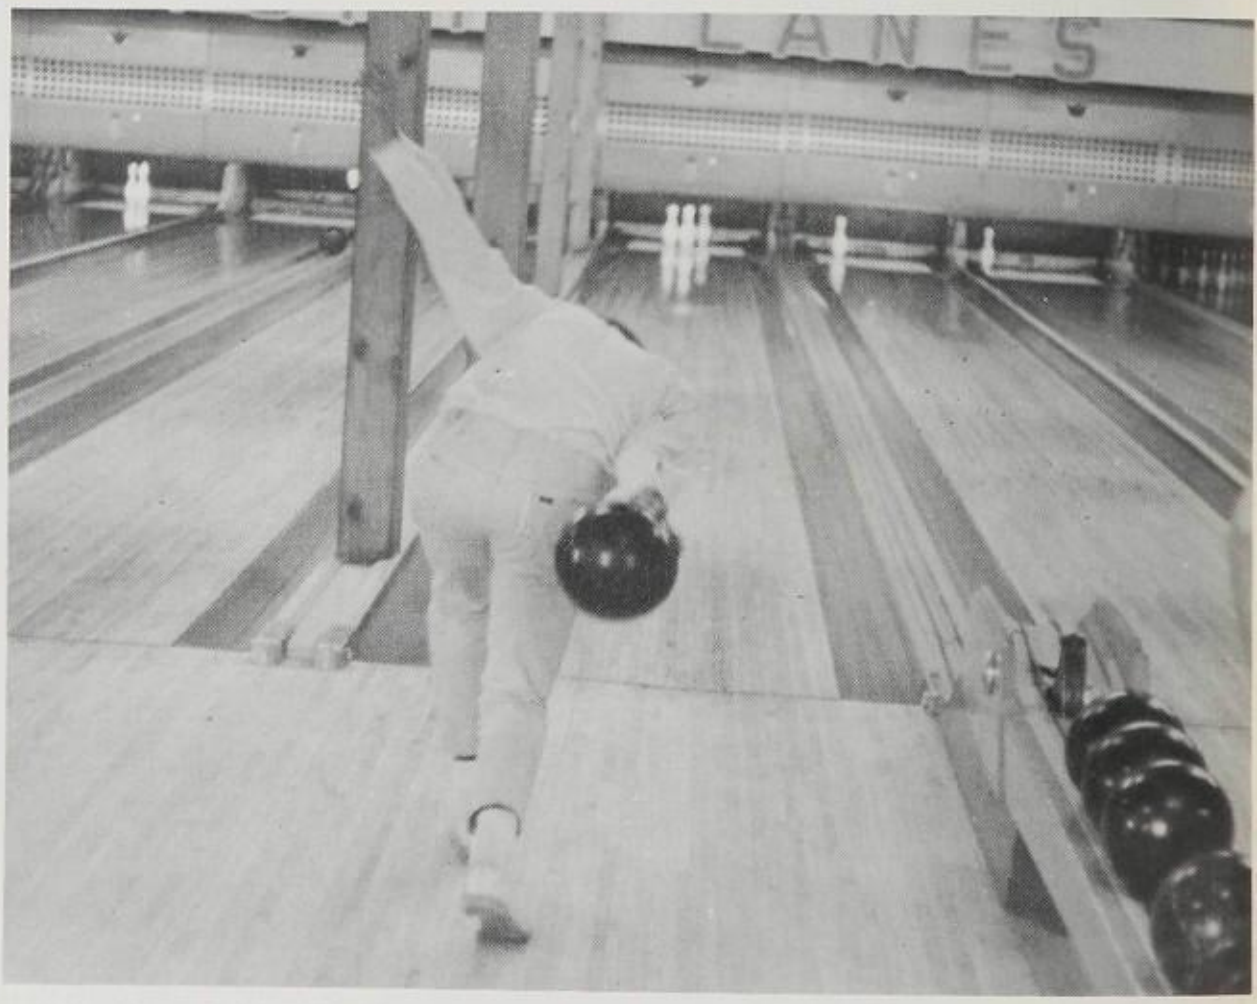
Commerce forfeited twice to Roosevelt

BOWLING TEAM

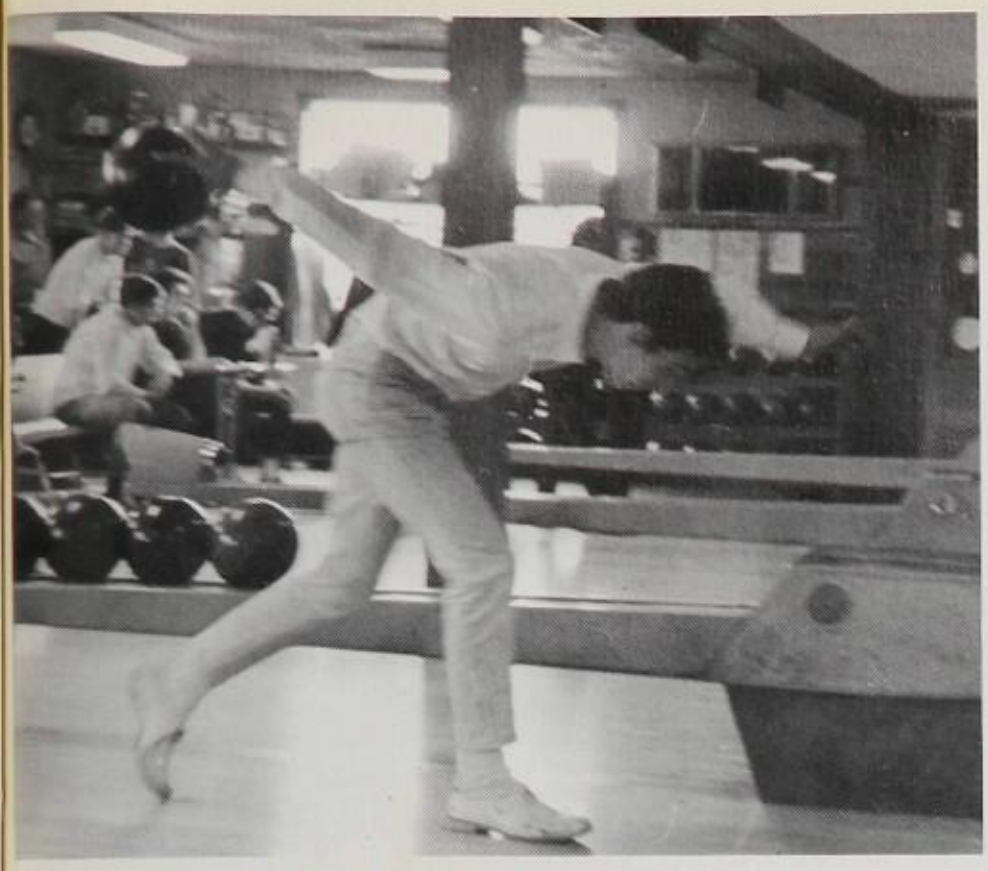
Row One: P. Basso, E. Frisch, G. Pettinati. Row Two: K. Richman, Coach Berardino Del Bene, J. Karell.

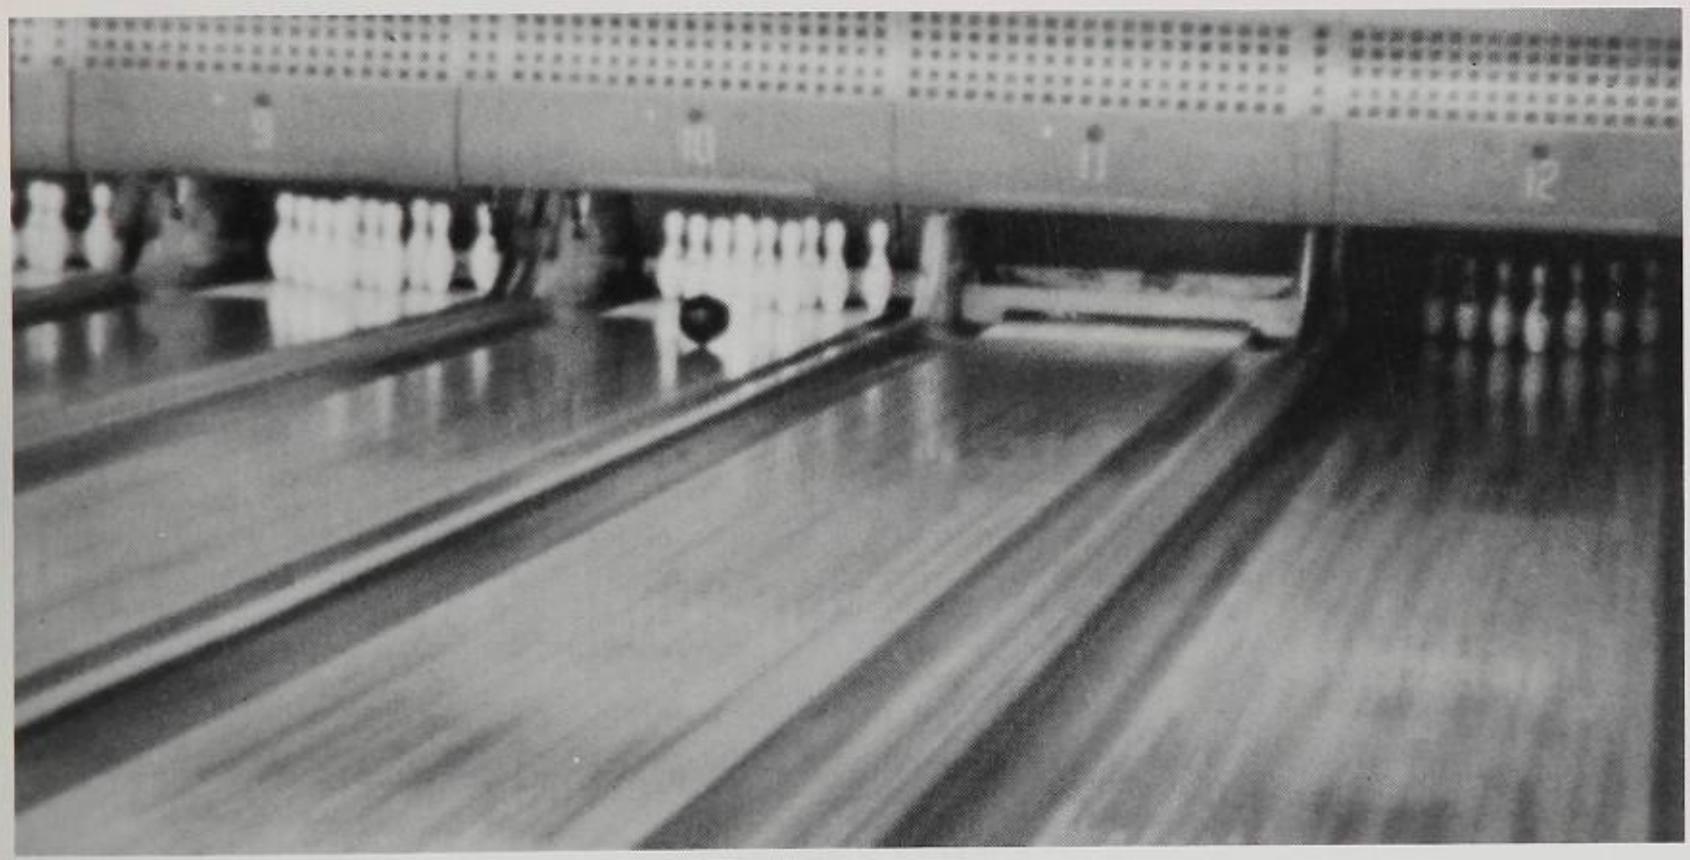




Under the leadership of Mr. Del Bene our kegglers recovering from a slow start went on to win their last 18 out of 20 games, only to fall shy of first place by four games. The unfortunate start was over shadowed by this great finish and determination.

Juniors P. Brasso, E. Frisch, K. Richmond, and J. Karell all finished with averages of 150 or better. G. Pettinati the only Senior on the team gave the much needed in the stretch. With the fine nucleus of this years Juniors, Mr. Del Bene hopes to take next year's city crown.





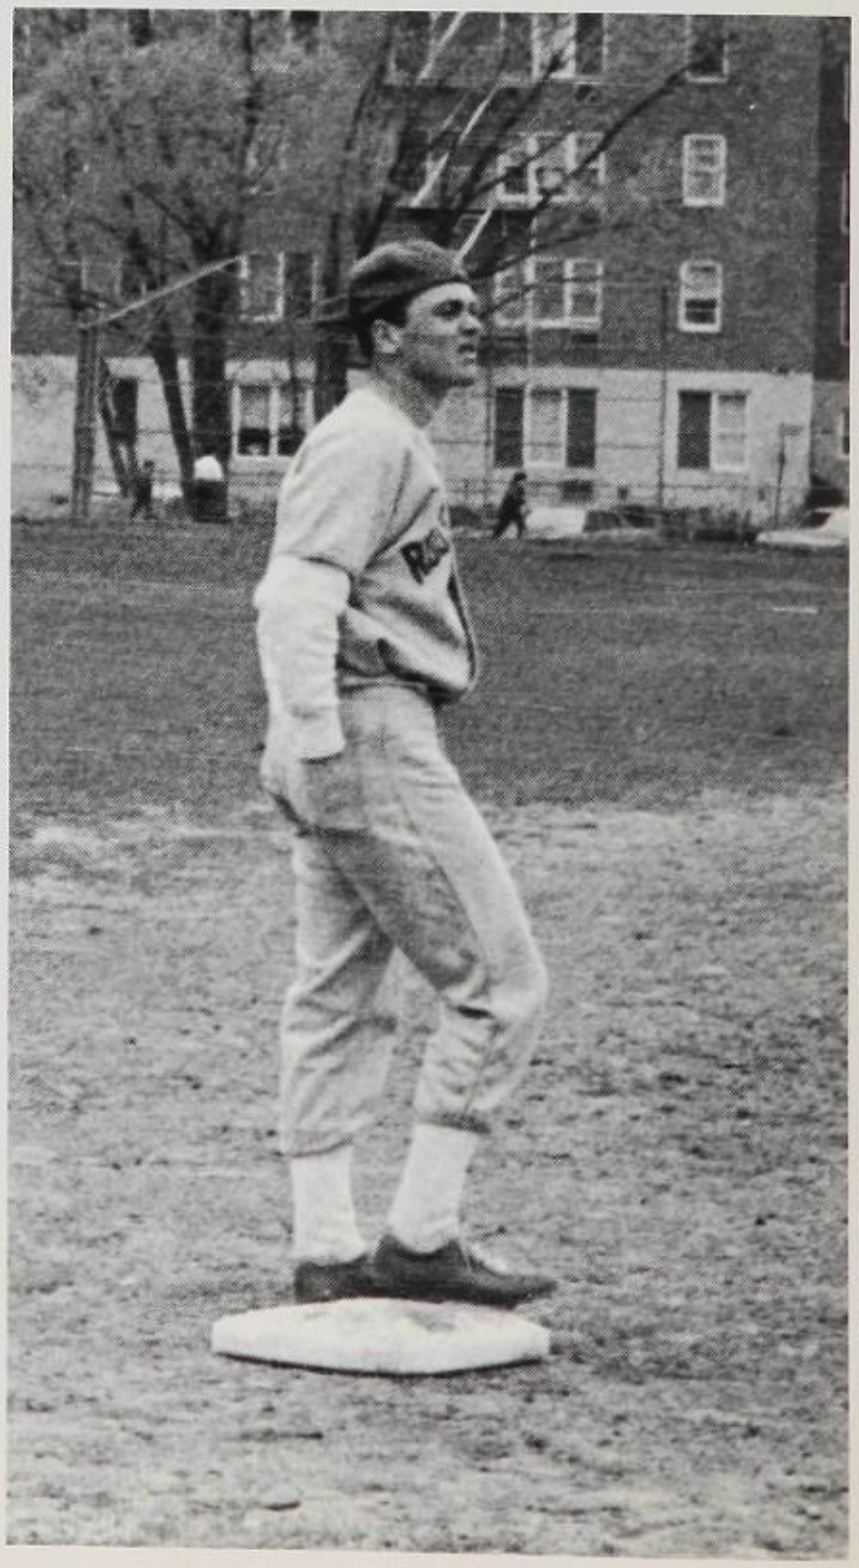
RIFLE TEAM

Since 1957 Roosevelt has not produced such a prolific team as this year's marksmen. One of the top teams in the county, we captured a fifth place trophy from among thirty-six teams. Coach Thomas Timmons has been an important part of this year's successful season.

Captain Richard Arnoff received a trophy from the county for being the top individual scorer on the team. Alan Bryan and Barry Jacobsen received similar trophies for second and third team places respectively. Richard Arnoff was also asked to enter the individual competition at the intersectional level. Coach Timmons summed up the season as "a truly great year."

VARSITY

BASEBALL



As a rookey, Coach Mike Leitner has taken the helm of a powerhouse team. Consistently bombing pitchers are Phil Pirovitz, Bill Molloy, John Hayes and Ken Erdoes. Ace hurler Tom Caione heads a competent pitching staff of Glenn Landesburg and Lloyd Nisbeth. Forecasted for stardom are Roosevelt's own Murderer's Row — Pirovitz, Caione, Hayes, and Erdoes.

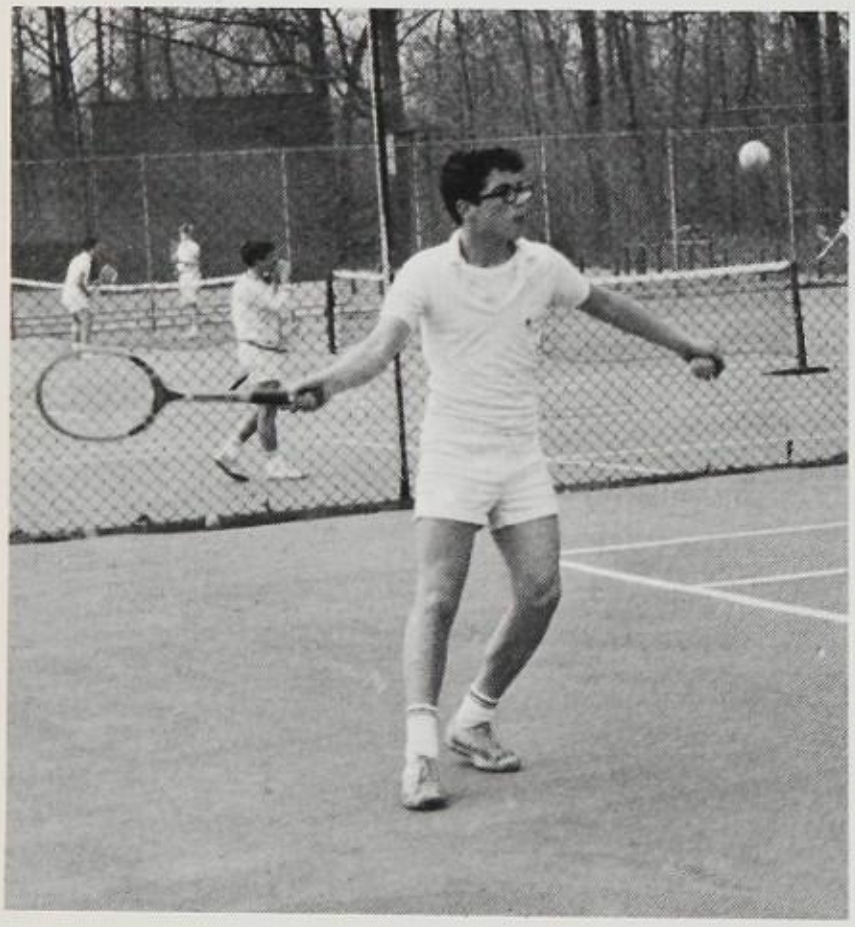
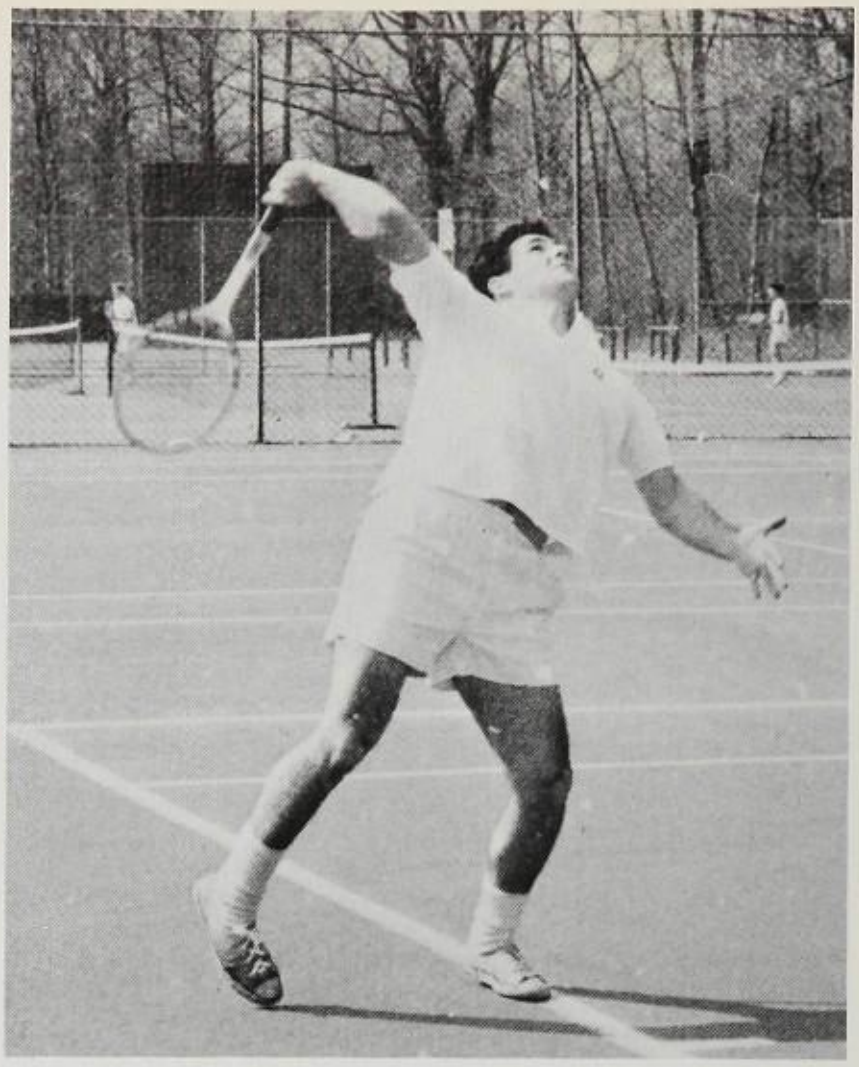
VARSITY TRACK

Row One: J. Scalzo, K. Solomon, D. Mintzer, C. Dustin, J. Gormley, H. Shaw, E. Stallworth, S. Douglas, J. Drisko. Row Two: J. Neal, R. Stone, J. Govoni, R. Josephberg, W. Vescio, K. Krensta, B. Davis, R. Misarti, J. Solo, F. Ferrara. Row Three: P. Goldstein, J. Miller, D. Ruckle, J. Nugent, R. Delasho, T. Mathewson, G. Govan, S. Stutman, L. Spann, M. Williams, D. Chafouleas, A. Ceserano.

Although not a strong contender for a city crown, this year's track team has many stars. Alex Ceserano is sure to place high at the city meet for the discus. Mel Williams, formerly of the running set, has concentrated on the long and triple jumps this year, and has proven excellent in both. One surprise this year is Greg Govan, who, as a sophomore, appears to be the best in the Yonkers City League and can often be seen out in front of the pack, leading Roosevelt to victory.

TENNIS





Directing this year's tennis team is Mr. Shields. Although this is his first year at Roosevelt, he has had a great deal of experience and has many competent players. Mr. Shields' top man, Andy Poses, is returning from last year's team and is a sure bet to give county opponents a tough game. The other two singles starters are Gary Gomer and Lloyd Trilling. Gary, a junior, is also a returnee from last year's squad and Lloyd, a sophomore, is very promising on the courts. The other able players fill in the two doubles matches from week to week. It looks as though Mr. Shields will start his coaching career on the right foot this year.

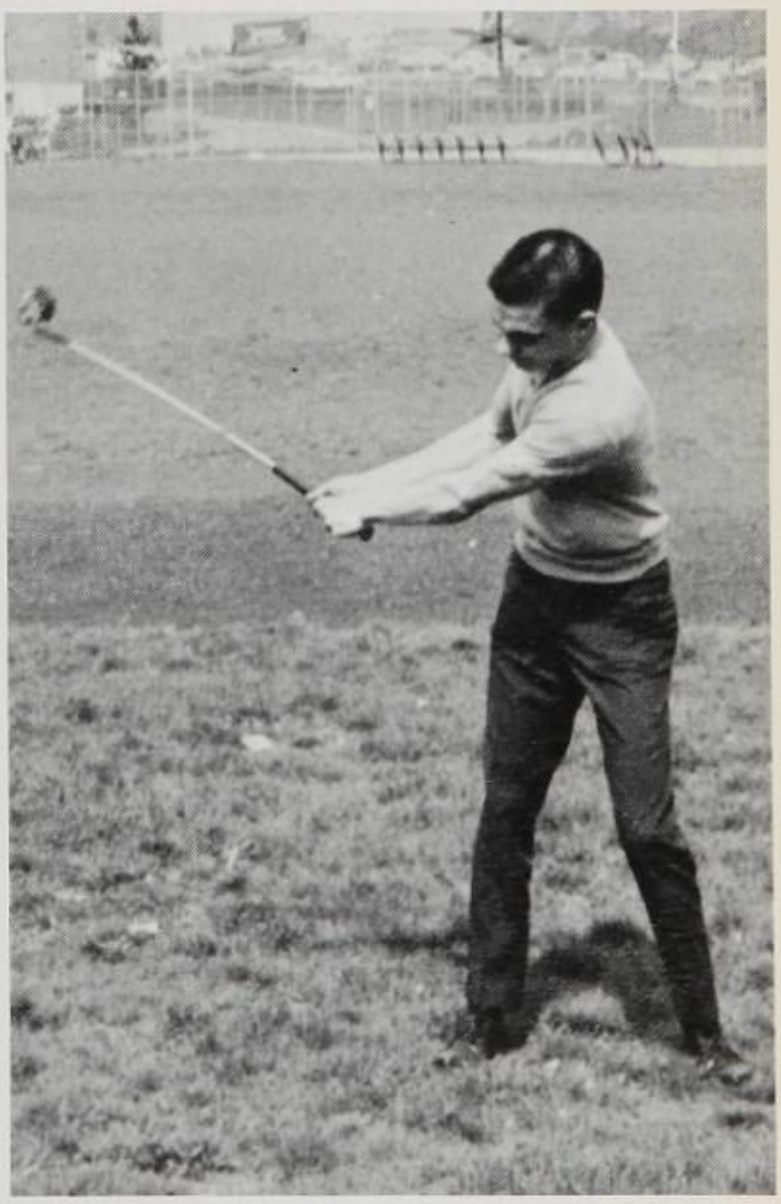
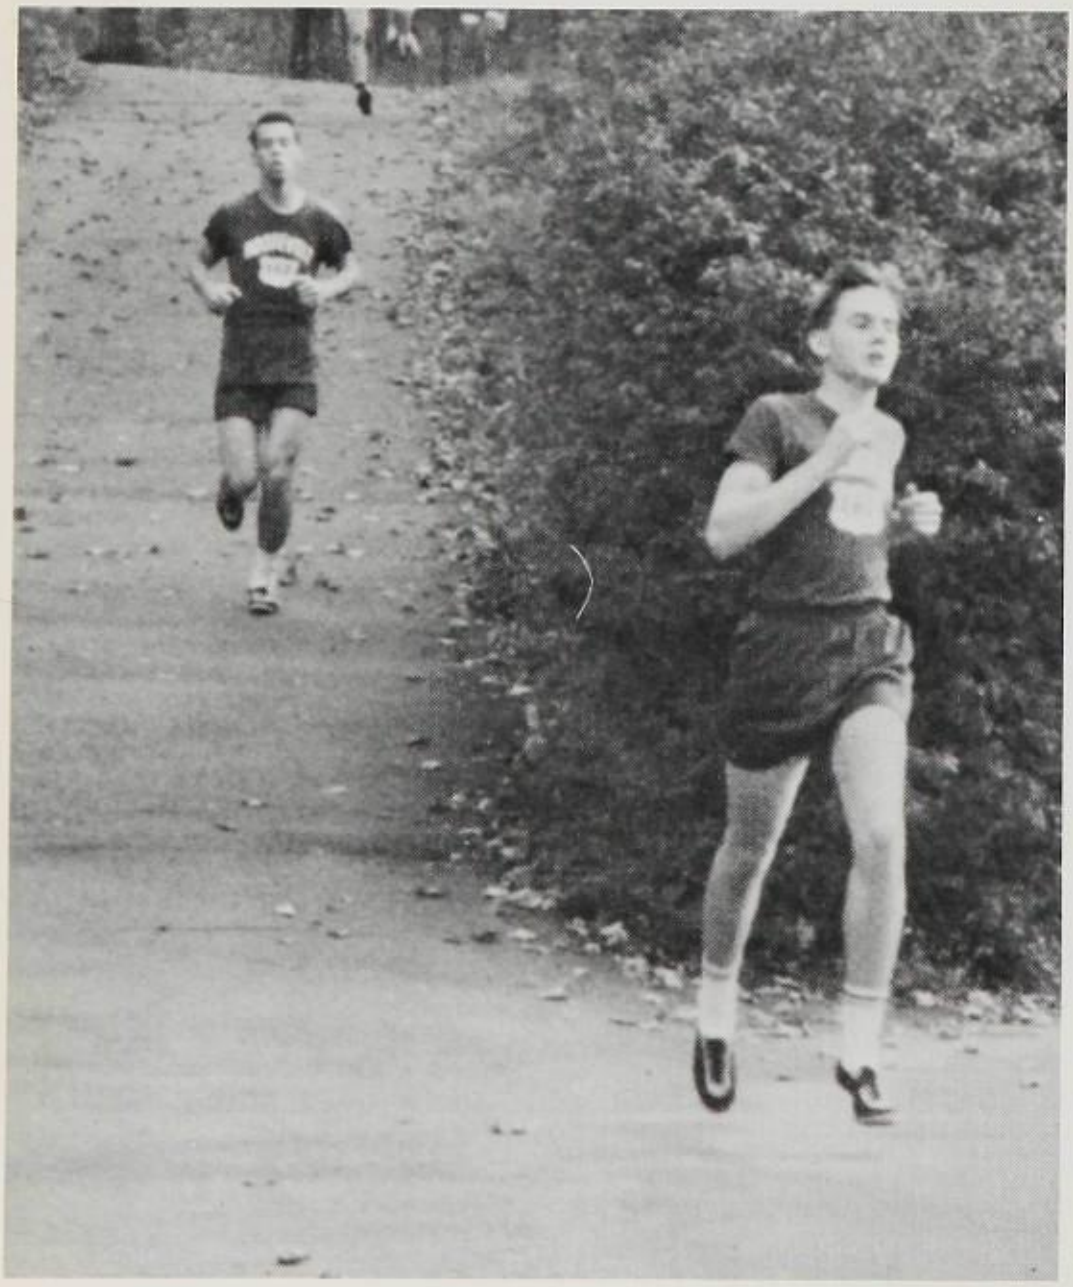
GOLF

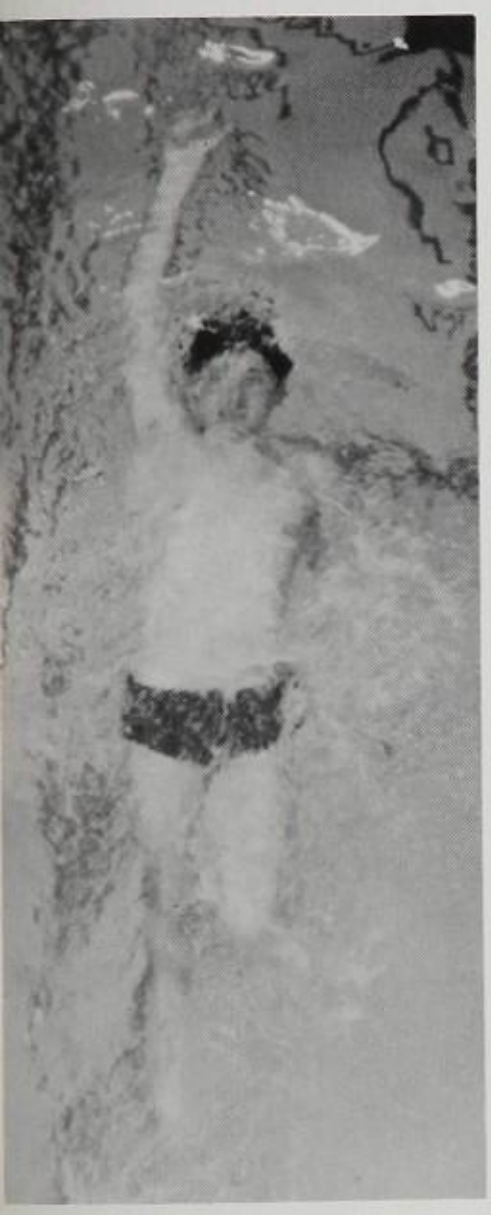
Row One: E. Frisch, D. Kliger, S. Blau. Row Two: M. Oles, R. Deutch, Coach William Norton. Not present: L. Nova, J. Guadagno.

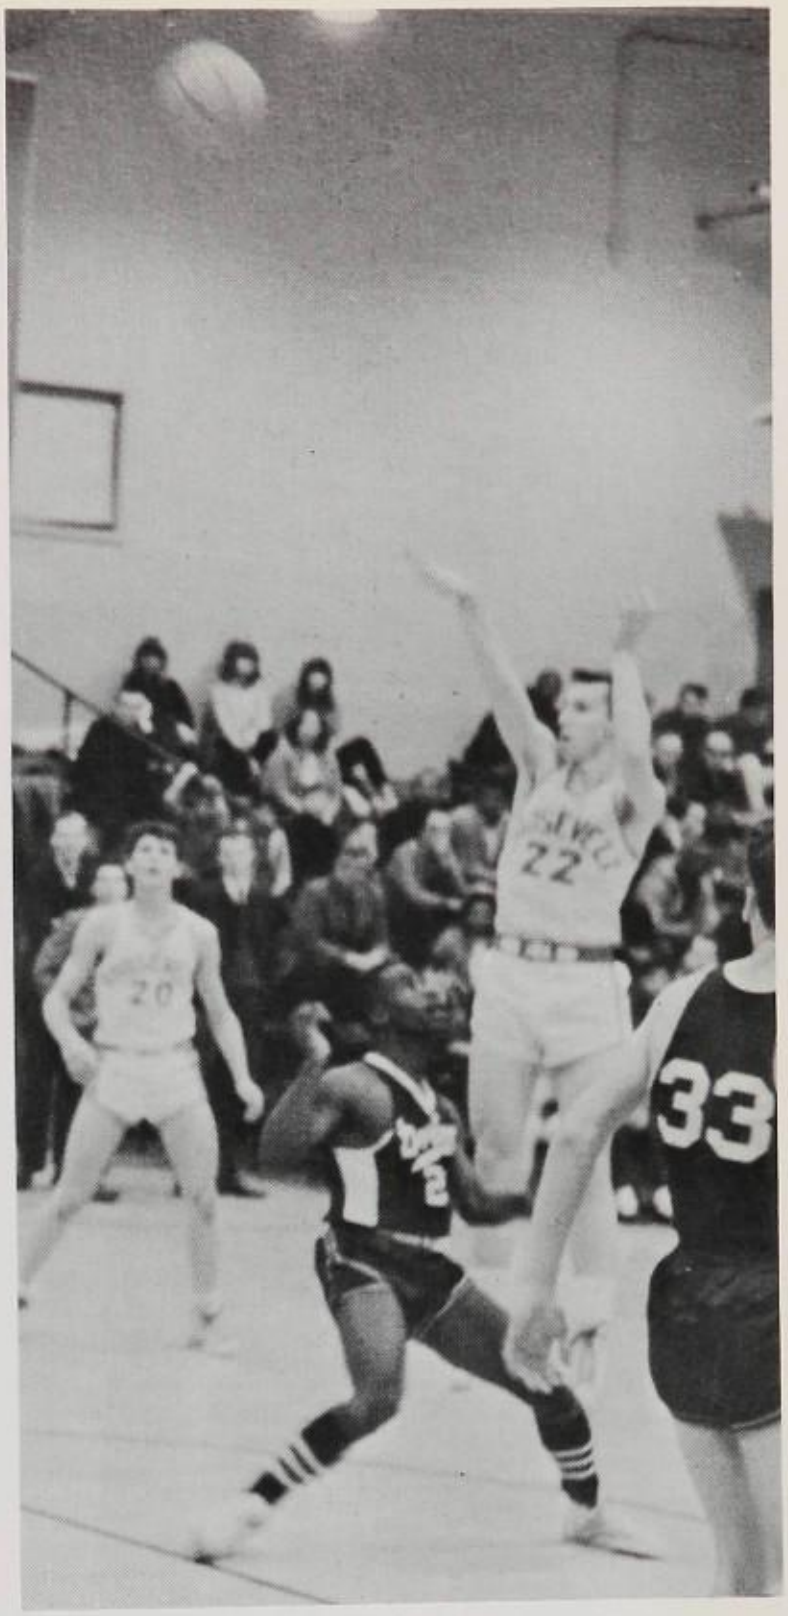


The perennial coach Mr. Norton will once again direct Roosevelt's golfers on the green. Co-captains Dave Kliger and John Guadagno, both returning from last year's team, are expected to carry the load with their consistent shooting in the 70's. Chipping in their pars are Larry Nova, Robert Dautch and Michael Oles. Sights are set for this year's county tournament for a fine Roosevelt showing.

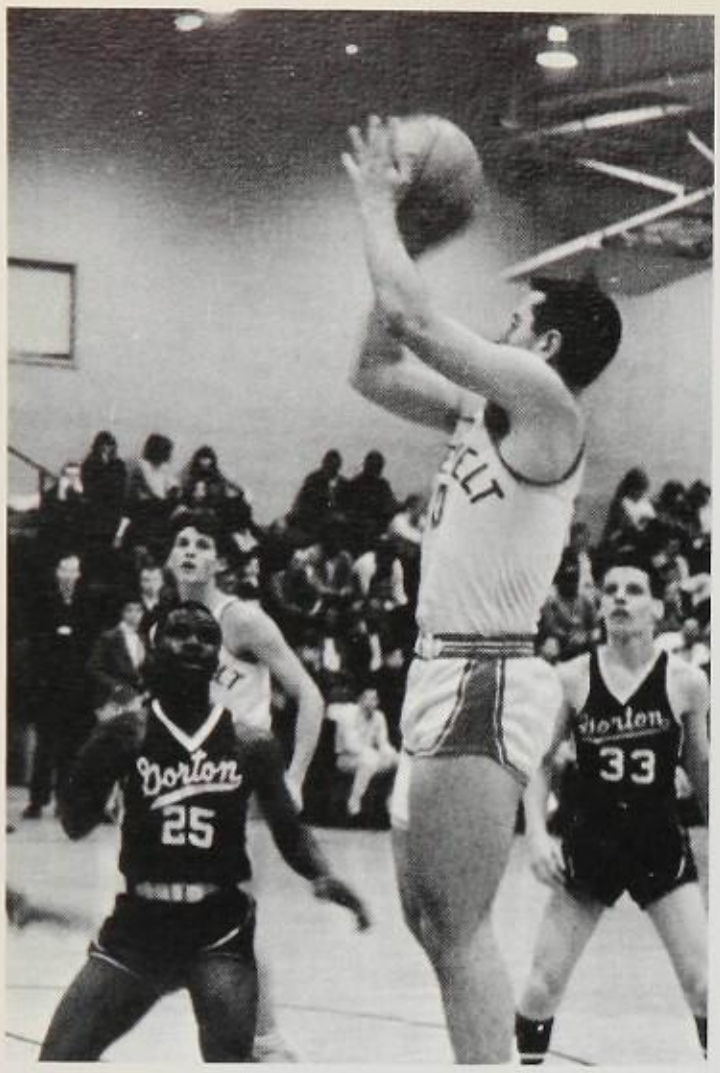
We saw the action . . .

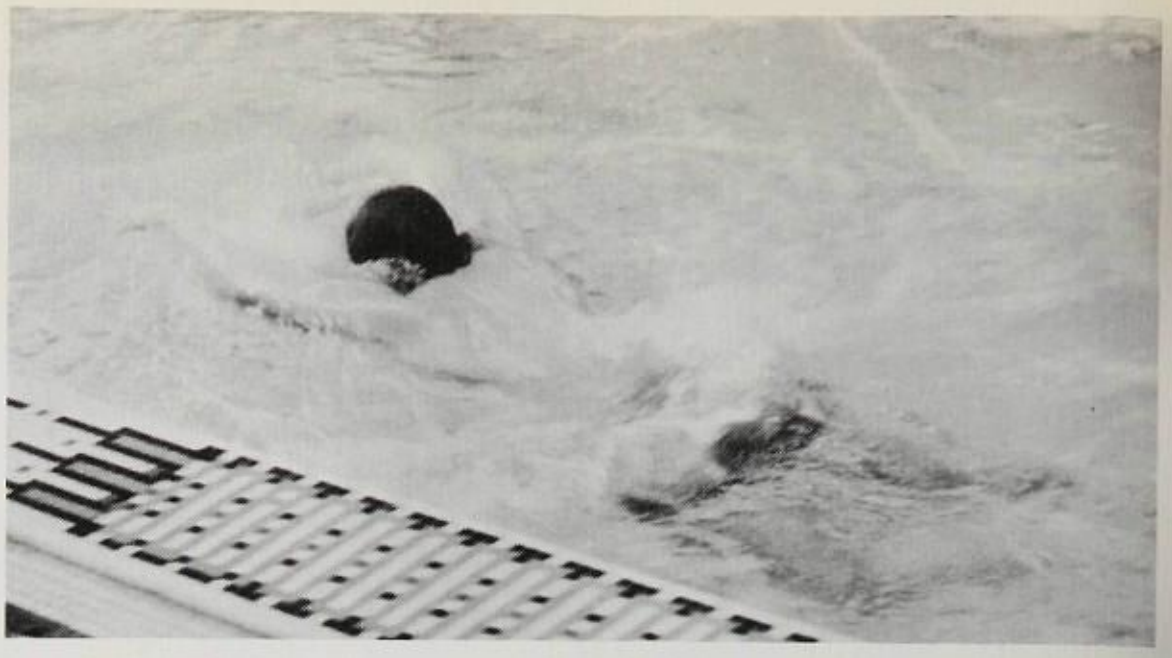




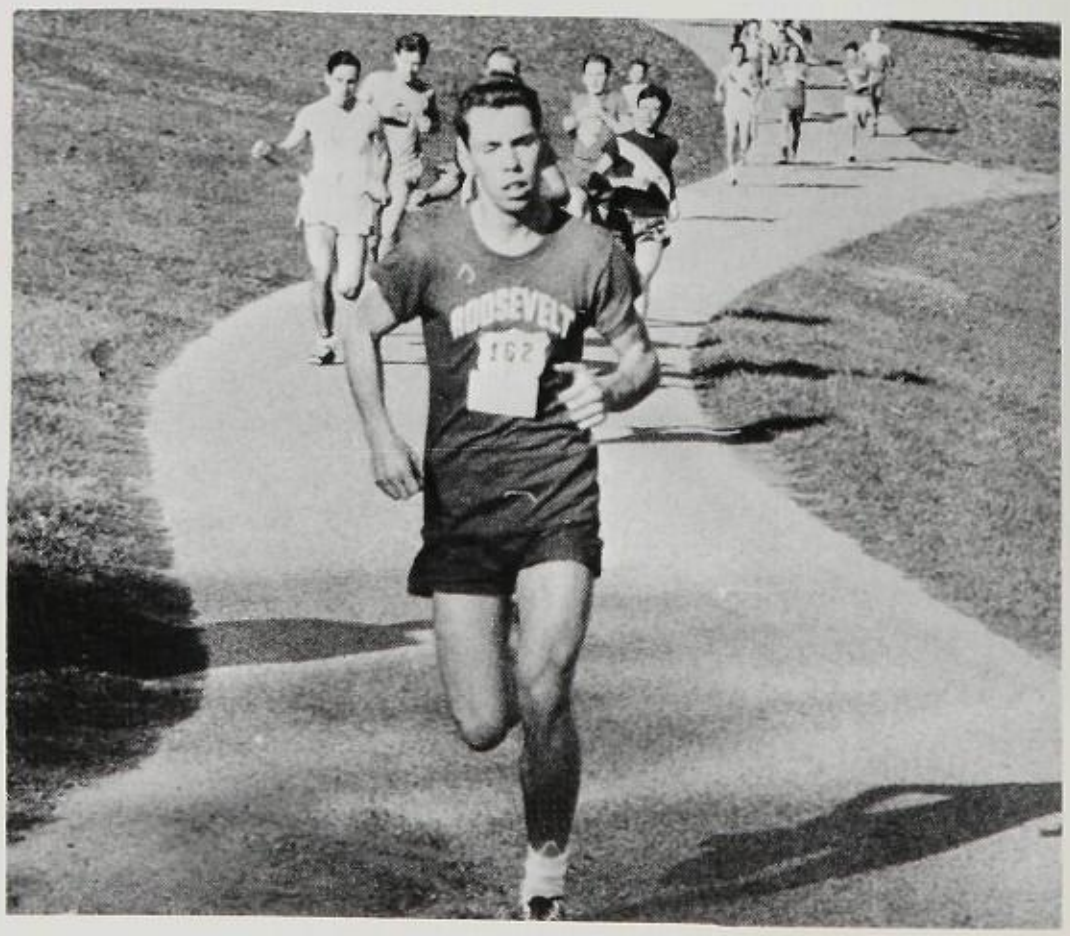


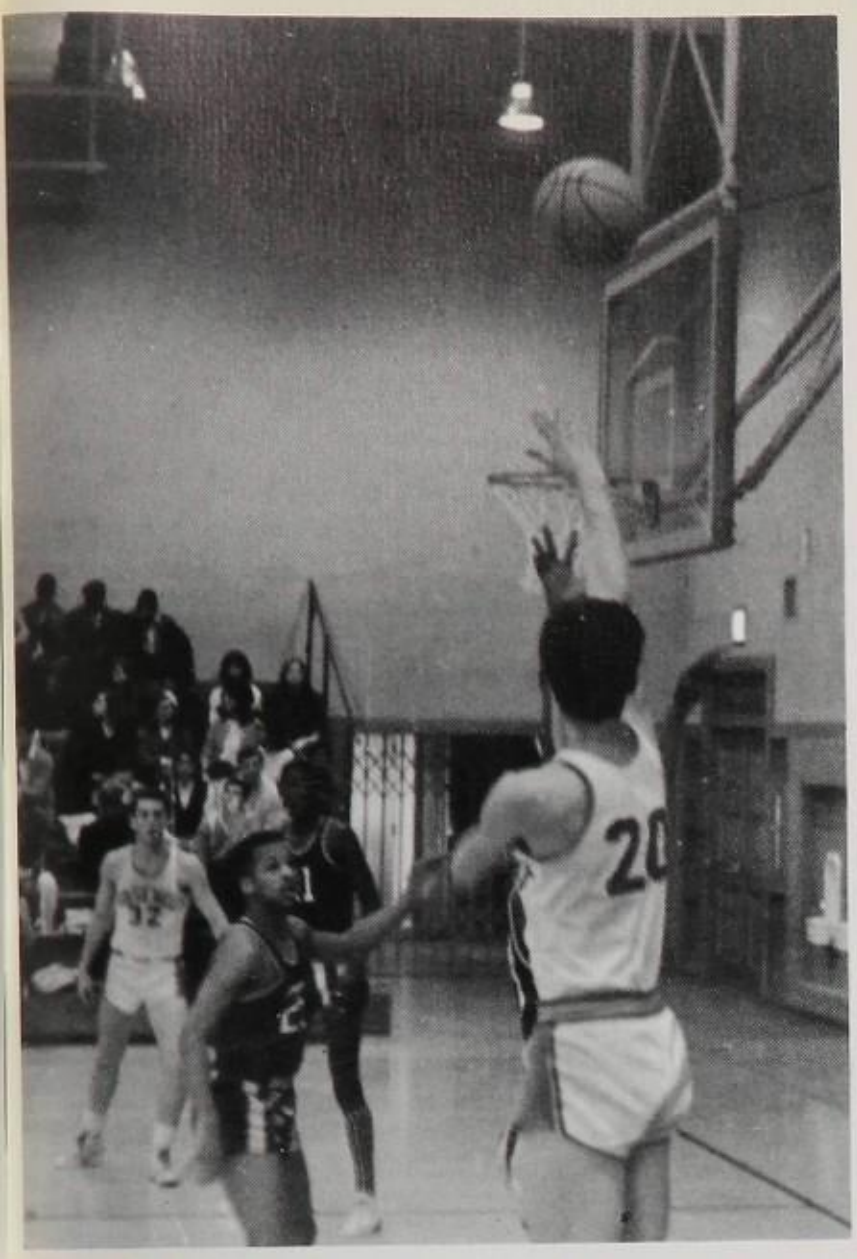
Right from the gun . . .





We had the spirit . . .





That makes Roosevelt number one . . .

GIRLS' SPORTS

A way to keep physically fit . . . to gain poise
. . . to release tensions . . . a volleyball . . . a new dance step . . . graceful maneuvers . . . precision
. . . a whirlwind of color . . . cheerleaders and the twirlers defining the warm rhythm of spirit.

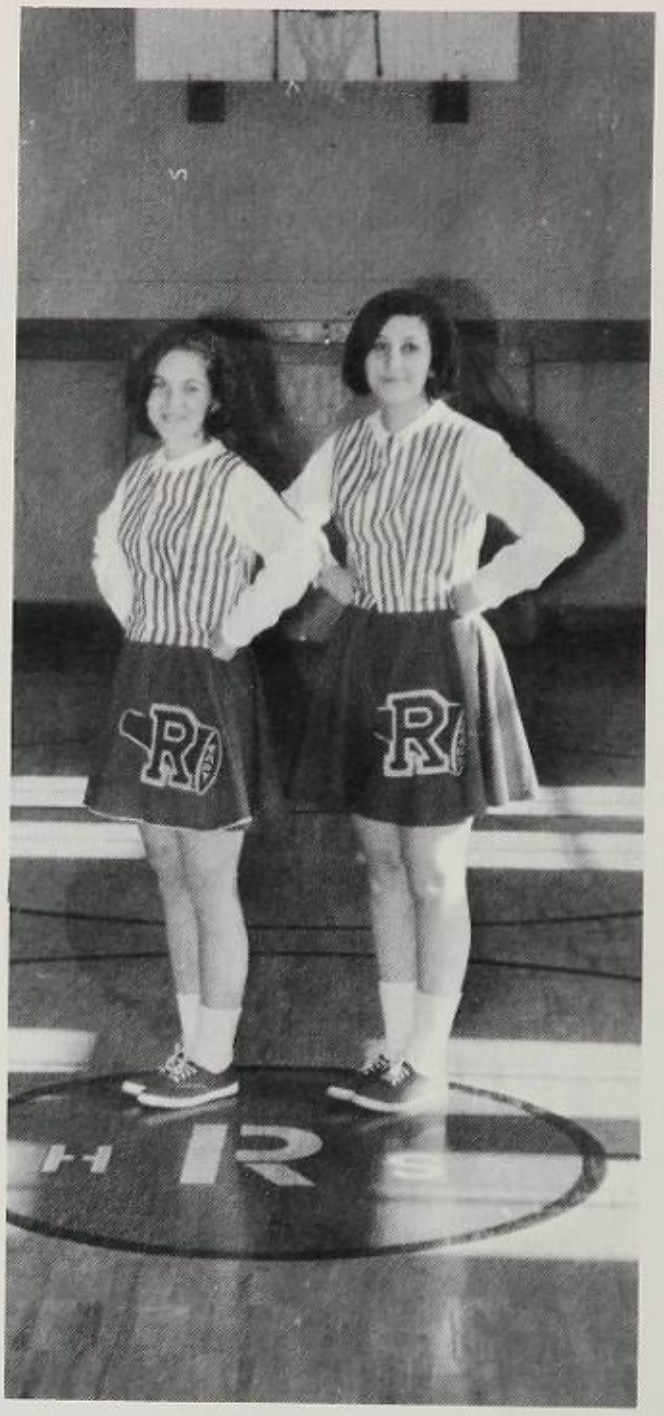
CHEERLEADERS

If you have heard enthusiastic screams on the field or reverberating shouts in the gym, or gasped at kicking leaps and unison splits, you have seen and heard the spirit of Roosevelt personified by our cheerleaders.

Prodded on by the firm leadership of captain D. Herrick and co-captain L. Ariniello and spurred on by the encouragement of faculty advisor, Miss V. Delango, the girls are put through their paces. Not until both group maneuvers and individual responses are polished does the squad literally gleam with perfection.

Long after the echoes have died away, and the halls ring with new voices and cheers, we shall remember these girls and their shouts that made Roosevelt spirit a reality.



Captain D. Herrick; Co-captain L. Ariniello

TWIRLERS

Silver batons flash in the bright sunlight, crimson skirts whip in the wind, and the shouts of Texas Pass, Butterfly, and Big Circle, ringing in the fall air. The twirlers run through the routines with growing anticipation; the football season is upon them, and this is when they shine.

Sponsored by Mrs. A. Mark, the girls have been the featured event of many football clashes. Their work has included the carousel, confetti, balloons and brisk marches which climaxed the season at the Thanksgiving Day game. A picture to be framed and remembered is our Twirlers of the Red and White.

Row One: C. Migden; captain M. Klug, H. Zolkower, S. Roswit, K. Evers, J. Landau, J. Schapiro, N. Dubinbaum, A. Eil, co-captain. Row Two: P. Weisbach, P. VanderWerff, S. Kreloff, W. Brickwedell, N. Herman, T. Siegal, J. Williams.

BASKETBALL CLUB

Row One: S. Giddings, P. Hunt, K. Herblum. Row Two: H. Fox, H. Cohen, C. Mosley, B. Graham, G. Rose. Row Three: J. Williams, B. Clarke, C. Bracey, S. Levitt, C. Graham, K. Evers, A. Steinberg.

BOWLING CLUB

Every Monday afternoon the Girls' Bowling Club meets in the Grassy Sprain Bowl. Under the leadership of Mrs. F. Quinlan, the girls gather in order to perfect their bowling techniques. These meetings provide the opportunity to improve individual scores in addition to an afternoon of friendly competition.

L. Valetutti, B. Marti, S. Piliero, H. Fox, J. Bernstein, J. Brown, P. Walsh, K. Creutzberger, J. DeFlorio, C. Wetterhall, K. Zurbach, P. Marese.

TENNIS CLUB

Formed to give beginners an opportunity to learn basic strokes and a structural knowledge of scoring, the Tennis Club has a growing membership. Using the school's courts and planning trips to other courts, the club looks forward to sessions in the out-of-doors.

L. Feinberg, J. Popoff, V. Golub, K. Ziccardi, J. Gershowitz, N. Brokaw, J. Tietjen, A. Forman, M. MacLean.

DANCE CLUB

Row One: V. Golub, J. Popoff, B. Haimowitz, K. Ziccardi. Row Two: J. Rabinowitz, B. Clark, J. Gershowitz, A. Brokaw. Row Three: M. MacLean, J. Tietjen, D. Kerner, A. Forman.

The record spins, positions are assumed and the Dance Club, under the direction of Mrs. Mark, is ready for an afternoon of rhythm. After limbering up, the girls participate in a variety of dance themes, ranging from jazz to tap, with an interlude of show style and folk dancing.

VOLLEYBALL CLUB

Intramural competition provided the opportunity for Roosevelt to continue its tradition of Junior-Senior rivalry. During activity periods before and after school the girls competed in elimination trials to select the inter-class volleyball champions.

In this year of interschool competition, the girls of the Volleyball Club found the rivalry to their liking, and, having performed well under fire, compiled a 4-1 record. Under the capable supervision of Mrs. Mark and Mrs. Quinlan, this club has continued the history of fine sportsmanship indicative of R.H.S.

VOLLEYBALL ALL-STARS
Row One: J. Williams, S. Ackerman, A. Steinberg. Row Two: K. Herblum, K. Evers, G. Rose, S. Kurtz, H. Cohen.
